

Article 10: Public Communications

1. Each Party shall provide for the submission and receipt, and periodically make available, a list of public communications on labour law matters that:
 - (a) are raised by a national of the Party or by an enterprise or an organization of workers or employers established in the territory of the Party;
 - (b) arise in the territory of the other Party; and
 - (c) pertain to a matter related to this Agreement.
2. Each Party shall consider those communications in accordance with domestic procedures.

Article 11: General Consultations

1. The Parties shall at all times endeavour to concur on the interpretation and application of this Agreement.
2. The Parties shall make every attempt, through consultations and the exchange of information, with a particular emphasis on cooperation, to address any matter that might affect the operation of this Agreement.
3. A Party may request consultations with the other Party regarding any matter arising under this Agreement by delivering a written request to the National Point of Contact of the other Party.
4. If the Parties fail to resolve the matter, the requesting Party may use the procedures provided under Article 12 (Ministerial Consultations).
