

Miss Bégin is particularly pleased with the provisions in the Agreement enabling coordination of French social security programs with those of the Canadian provinces. These clauses allow provinces to negotiate arrangements with France on social security legislation coming under their jurisdiction.