

A five-person committee of distinguished Canadians will recommend (from nominations & applications) candidates for the awards. It is expected that the first export awards candidates will be selected early in the new year, with the winners to be announced in the Spring.

The basic government Award will be a plaque giving the citations. Details of the Award guidelines, etc. will be announced at the Canadian Export Association annual meeting.