

effect upon you

The sort of thing he upon your friends is to make them rebelly "wrothy" - If the culprit were a younger man "law & father" wd be the correct method to apply - But we don't want to see you being done under it - He should be "shot up" figuratively - of course - it is not worth an honest man's powder & ball.

Most of you fellow Officers - & all of those who served with the 1st Div in those days know the reasons for this man's knowing, but the general public don't - I think that they should
