

George Norrie, seaman, Peterhead,
died Dec. 27, 1872, on board the barque
Xanthus, Peterhead, aged 25 years.

Deeply regretted by all.

James Davidson, Master.

The above is the youngest son of the late George Norrie who lies on the right.

John Roslin, A.B., a native of Shetland, died on board the Sch. Jumna, of Dundee, Oct., 1859. A. Hay, commander.

Lar. Moncrieff, a native of Shetland, died on Campbell's, 186-, aged 33 years.

John Roach, d'd at American Station, 1891, aged 6(?)3 years.

James Donnell died 1861, aged 27 years,
on board brig Georgiana.

John O'Brien, d. 1861, aged 18, a native of Peterhead, brig Alert.

John Brown, cooper, aged 53 years.

Also,

William Moir, seaman a native of Dundee.

John Brown belonged to Hull.

also,

John Dunnat, Chief Mate, d'd aged 32.

All these died of scurvy, d'd 1875, on the barque Alibi of Ab'd'n.

A. Stewart, Commander.

A. Davidson (born in Peterhead?) died 1857, 37 years old, on the Alibi, also(?)

Geo. Allan, born in Ab'd'n, d'd aged 28.

William H. Chase, seaman, died on board schooner
Concordia of Sag Harbor, July 28th, 1867, 25 years.

Israel Reid, 1877? aged 34, a Native of Dartmouth, Mass. 2d officer of Bark Morning Star, Capt. Allan, of New Bedford.