HC	D! FOR CALIFORNIA!	!!
	THE LABORER'S PARADISE!
Salubrio	ous Climate, Fertile Soil, Large Labor Ret	urns
NO	NO SEVERE WINTERS, LOST TIME, NO BLIGHT OR INSECT PESTS	5.
Daily Tra	nins from Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Chicago, St. Omaha and Intermediate Points, for San Francisco.	Louis
E M J	IGBANT TICKETS AT LOW BATE	8.
Choice j	from Nearly Every Variety of Farming, Fruit, Gra and Timber Lands.	zing
Now offer, in s	sections, adjacent to their Railroad lines in CALIFORNIA, NEVADA and UTAH, a large body
most of	of which is well adapted to cultivation, and offer unequaled advantages for settlement or investme FORNIA the lands lying on each side of the main line of the Central Pacific Railroad extend ars of the Sacramento, above the Bay of San Francisco, across the broadest and most populous p Workshow and the Sacramento, above the Bay of San Francisco, across the broadest and most populous p	ent.
most of IN GALHI navigable wate the Sacraments dittone-embras shores of the M Germany and A way, etc. This strawberries, st and merfection	FORNIA the lands lying on each side of the main line of the Central Pacific Railroad extend ers of the Sacramento, above the Bay of San Francisco. across the broadest and most populous p o Valley and both slopes of the Sierra Nevada Mountains. They are diversified in soil, climate leng the semi-tropical productions in the lower valleys—corresponding with those of Spain, Italy Mediterranean—the vine, orchard and grain hands of the foot hills—corresponding with those of Austria—and the timber lands of the mountain slopes—corresponding with those of Maine, Swe is central portion of California is already noted for the excellence of its wheat, grapes, pears, mail fruits and garden vegetables generally, and for the case with which they can be grown to di- undattainable classifier. The lands in this belt, purchased of the Company, have resulted in g	ent. from the portion of and con- y, and the f France den, No- cherric imension gratifyin most of IN CALII navigable wate the Sacramento ditions—embra distante and the Germany and A way, etc. This strawberries, st and parfection success to the s troubled by ins Above the	FORNIA the lands lying on each side of the main line of the Central Pacific Railroad extend or sof the Sacramenic, above the Bay of San Francisco. across the broadest and most populous p o Valley and both slopes of the Sierra Nevada Mountains. They are diversified in soit, climate large the semi-tropical productions in the lower valleys—corresponding with those of Spain, Italy Mediterranean—the vine, orchard and grain hands of the font hills—corresponding with those of spain, Italy Austria—and the timber lands of the mountain slopes—corresponding with those of Maine, Swe s contral portion of California is already noted for the excellence of its wheat, grapes, pears, unali fruits and graden vegetables generally, and for the case with which they can be groom to do unalitatinable classwkere. The lands in this belt, purchased of the Courierany have resulted in y settlers. Wheat can safely lie in the field till threshed and shipped, and the furth trees and vine act or blight.	ent. from the portion of and control of France den, No cherrie imension gratifyin s are n most of IN CALIJ navigable wake the Sacramento ditions—embra shores of the M Germany and A way, etc. This strawberries, at and perfection success to the s troubled by ins from the center characteristics. In the conner, fi	FORNIA the lands lying on each side of the main line of the Central Pacific Railroad extend ers of the Sacramento, above the Bay of San Francisco. across the broadest and most populous r o Valley and both slopes of the Sierra Nevada Mountains. They are diversitied in soit, climate lang the semi-tropical productions in the lower valleys—corresponding with those of Bain, Italy Mediterranean—the vine, orchard and grain lands of the foot hills—corresponding with those of Austria—and the timber lands of the mountain slope—corresponding with those of Main, Swe a central portion of California is already noted for the excellence of its wheat, grapes, pears, unall fruits and graden vegetables generally, and for the ease with which they can be grown to do unattainable claewhere. The lands in this belt, purchased of the Company, have resulted in g settlers. Wheat can safely lie in the field till threshed and shipped, and the fruit trees and vine sects or blight. e CALIFORNIA and OREGON BRANCH, in the renowned Valley of the Sacramento, and also offers unrivaled facilities for extensive and profitable sheep and stock grazing. The with less the main in California .	ent. from the portion and and cou- y, and the f France den, No cherric imension gratifyings are n extending e gener oats, etchole com
most of IN CALII navigable wake the Sacramento ditione-embras shores of the M germany and A way, etc. This strawberries, at and parfection excess to the se troubled by ins Along the from the center in recent states in the country, prices some of il IN NEVA and best estile state as to comm the Humboldt J lielded good er IN UTAH the fortility of the	FORNIA the lands lying on each side of the main line of the Central Pacific Railroad extend or sof the Sacramento, above the Bay of San Francisco. across the broadest and most populous p o Valley and both slopes of the Slerra Nevada Mountains. They are diversified in soit, climate cling the semi-tropical productions in the lower valleys-corresponding with those of Bpain, Italy Mediterranean—the vine, orchard and grain hands of the foot hills-corresponding with those of Main, Italy Mediterranean—the vine, orchard and grain hands of the foot hills-corresponding with those of Austria-and the timber lands of the mountain slopes-corresponding with those of Maine, Swe s central portion of California is already noted for the excellence of its wheat, grapes, pears, unall fruits and garden vegetables generally, and for the case with which they can be grown to di- unatianable clsewhere. The lands in this belt, purchased of the Company, have resulted in settlers. Wheat can safely lie in the field till threshed and shipped, and the fruit trees and vine settlers. Wheat can safely lie in the field till threshed and shipped, and the fruit trees and vine settlers. Wheat can safely lie in the field till threshed and shipped, and the fruit trees and vine act to the northern boundary of the State, the Company also offer a choice selection, with the sam . This valley is at presont the seat of the most successful culture of small grains (wheat, barley, and also differs unrivaled facilities for extensive and profitable sheep and stock grazing. The wil the Best Land in California . . DA the main line of the Central Pacific Rallroad occupies the Truckee and Humbold Valleys, ti ed. In the State, at a short distance from numerons and important mining repions, whose yie is is estimated at from fifteen to twenty million dollars unnually. The lands of the Company ar mand these markets for their produce. Large herds of cattle are maintained with liftie or no t Valley and the valleys which join it. Wherever the proper cultivation has been a	ent. from the portion and and cou- y, and the f France den, No cherric imension gratifyings are n extending e gener oats, etchole com
most of IN CALI Any cable wate the Sacramento different and any and A way, etc. This strawberries, at and parfection success to the s troubled by ins- many parfection success to the s troubled by ins- prices some of i IN NEVA And best estitle real out on the senter the country, prices some of i IN NEVA And best estitle set occum the Humboidt I IN UTAH These land acquire indestri	FORNTA the lands lying on each side of the main line of the Central Pacific Railroad extend or of the Sacramento, above the Bay of San Francisco. across the broadest and most populous p ovalley and both slopes of the Berra Nevada Mountains. They are diversified in soit, climate ading the semi-tropical productions in the lower valleys—corresponding with those of Spain, itsy Mediterranean—the vine, orchard and grain hands of the four hills—corresponding with those of a unit in the semi-tropical productions in the lower valleys—corresponding with those of Maine, Swe a central portion of California is already noted for the excellence of its wheat, grapes, pears, unail fruits and garden vegetables generally, and for the case tith which they gran be grown to di unait traits and garden vegetables generally, and for the case tith which they gran be grown to di unait traits and garden vegetables generally, and for the case tith which they gran be grown to di unait traits and garden vegetables generally, and for the case with which they gran be grown to do unait traits and garden vegetables generally, and for the case with which they form boundary of unaits and garden vegetables generally, and for the case with which they form be grane be grown to do unaits and garden vegetables generally, and for the case with the form boundary of the Sacramento, et and also offers unreased the most successful culture of small grains (wheat, barley, and also offers unrivaled facilities for extensive and profitable sheep and stock grazing. The will be list stands at from fifteen to twenty million dollars unnually. The lands of the Company as a first the values which join it. Wherever the proper culturation has been applied, these he tops of fruits, cereals and esculers. This values and the values will be only the values will be sold and the healthruiness of the climate, the Company have also good land. This will be sold in quantities and on terms to suit. Immigrants, coloniats and caspitalists, who	ent. from the portion of and con- ry, and the f France den, No. chertic imension gratifying a are n extending e gener oats, etch hole con- hole con- hole con- hole ange eld of the rouble ands have onstrate
most of IN CALI Any cable wate the Sacramento different and any and A way, etc. This strawberries, at and parfection success to the s troubled by ins- many parfection success to the s troubled by ins- prices some of i IN NEVA And best estitle real out on the senter the country, prices some of i IN NEVA And best estitle set occum the Humboidt I IN UTAH These land acquire indestri	FORNIA the lands lying on each side of the main line of the Central Pacific Railroad extend or so the Sacramenic, above the Bay of San Francisco, across the broadest and most populous p o Valley and both slopes of the Bierra Nevada Mountains. They are diversified in soit, climate tacing the semi-tropical productions in the lower valleys-corresponding with those of Spain, Italy Mediterranean—the vine, orchard and grain hands of the four hills-corresponding with those of Austria-and the timber lands of the mountain alone-corresponding with those of Maine, Swe s central portion of California is already noted for the excellence of its wheat, grapes, pears, unall fruits and graden vegetables generally, and for the excellence of its wheat, grapes, pears, settlers. Wheat can safely lie in the field till threshed and shipped, and the fruit trees and vine sects or blight. Is CALIFORNIA and OREGON BRANCH, in the renowned Valley of the Sacramento, and also affers unrivated facilities for extensive and profitable sheep and stock grazing. The wi- the face the state, at a short distance from numerons and important mining replons, whose yit is is estimated at from fitteen to twenty million dollars nnnually. The lands of the Congray, have so successfully densitient of the context of the of the congray and so of the Sacramento, the face the state, at a short distance from numerons and important mining replons, whose yit wand have due the cliftornia. The valley shall have the state, the Werever the proper cultivation has been applied, these have peop of fruits, cereals and esculents. The where which join it. Wherever the Mormons have so successfully dem- the soil and the valleys which join it. Wherever the proper cultivation has been applied, these have peop of fruits, cereals and esculents. The the great Salt Lake and contiguous valleys, where the Mormons have so successfully dem- the soil and the healthulteness of the climate, the Company have also good land. Title, Patent direct from the United States Government.	ent. from the portion of and con- ry, and the f France den, No. chertic imension gratifying a are n extending e gener oats, etch hole con- hole con- hole con- hole ange eld of the rouble ands have onstrate

e pi

Sec.

-

13

5!

II

PU-

3 2

ale!

any.

grasses

ly. es on the ettlers at

he great Nevada, e simple, from the omestead d limite,

the benbir intenthis they . n Pacific

P in the rding ex-

s of sale, , may be lso the

etc., and all appli-