

VER ST CROIX TO THE RIVER ST JOHN.

Boundary of the U.S. under the Act of Congress of July 20th 1840.

and Mr F. Schreder The trace of that line between the Instrument

Fig 2 and from Parks Hill to the River St John by Messrs Fairfax, Darbyson, Baldwin & Schreder

Note

The Vertical heights are expressed upon the profile in feet above the level of Mean tide at Cedar 138 a foot deducted from these heights will give the elevations above the Monument at the Source of the St Croix.
 The Stations which were occupied by the Transit instrument are marked thus

The Stations which were fixed under view of the transit are marked thus

The trace of the Meridian between the points fixed by the large Astronomical transit was done with a good portable Transit Theodolite every mile being marked by a cairn post

.55
.6

J D Graham
U S Commissioner