

- 2362 J. Thompson's Journal—"McKenzie River 1880-1801;"
Foundation of Rocky Mountain Post.
- 2363 Continuation of a journal—"Forks McF River, 1807"
(Supposed from handwriting to be Thompson's).
- 2364 Dr. McLAUGHLIN—"The Indians from Fort William to Lake of the Woods."
- 2355 ALEXANDER, Henry, Jr.--"Travels in Red River Department, 1806."
- 2366 PETER GRANT—"Some accounts of the Saulteux Indians;
their persons, dress, etc."
- 2367 Dr. CAMERON'S Journal—"The Nepigon Country, 1804."
- 2368 "The North West Agreement, 1804" (Union of contending factions).
- 2369 NORMAN McLEOD—"Journal, 1808", Alexandria.
Book containing the following manuscript journals, revised and prepared for publication by the Hon. Roderick McKenzie, containing:
- 2370 —A.—"Journal of a Passage in a Canoe from Païs Plat in Lake Superior to Portage de l'Isle in Rivière Ouinipigue," by EDW. UMFREVILLE. 1784.
- B.—"List of men at Arthabasca." 1805.
- C.—"An account of the N. W. Indians", by a partner of the Company, 1795.
- D.—"An account of McKenzie River Department, 1807," by Geo. KEITH.
- E.—"Some account of the Department of Fonds du Lac, or Mississippi, 1807" by G. Henry MONK.
- F—"Some account of Red River, 1797", by John JOHNSON.
- G—"An account of Lake Superior," by John JOHNSON.
- H—"Accounts of the North West Indians." Voyages 1792-96.
- 2371 "Remarks on board Schooner Nancy," an armed transport on the lakes, 1813; property of the N. W. Co. with ship's accounts and names of crew. (Foolscap Ms. well preserved).