Horses In Training Beginning to Step At Woodbine Track

Things are beginning to stir at the Woodbine, and already a considerable colony of horsemen are camped at the track. All the stables are, of course, in backward shape.

The province-bred of Robert Davies, in charge of Ed. Gleason, sent his entire lot of yearlings to the track yesterday. Gleason bred the yearling Gold Bud five-eighths at a two-minute clip. The rest bred a quarter in 20 seconds, viz. Tyrant, Mentor, Little, Holby, John Bowman, all two-year-olds, also Queen Sain and Frolic. Gleason has his horses in fine shape. F. Maher's Peter Dooley went a quarter in 22 and Jim O. a quarter in 23, with Dalton McCarthy in the saddle.

The Woodstock horses are quartered at the west end of the track. Detective, the winner of the Hamilton Derby of 1926, the son of Madjar, has wintered extra well, and Trainer Smith has great hopes of getting the big fellow to the races in fine shape. He also has the good mare Golden Wedding, Allen, Cast Steel, Tophet and Helen Winter in training. They all look good.

Wes. Sherrard has the Gorman horses this year, and they are well supported in the King's Plate. The best is Mary Bud, Sate, Calumny. Mr. Gorman was a victor at the track yesterday, and was pleased to be able to say that his horses had improved wonderfully since they arrived from Ottawa two weeks ago. Tom Sayer is also in the Gorman stable. Wes. Sherrard also trains Outcast, another pacer, which he has already sent a mile in 2:05.

The veteran Mike Gorman has been sick for some time, but is able to get around a little again.

Trainer Barry Littlefield and Jockey Phil Musgrave were also visitors at the track yesterday. Little field will ship the Seagram horses to the track the first of next week. They are all in good shape and have wintered well.

Ambrose Woods' pacer, Jane Shore, one of the favorites this year, stepped in a hole yesterday and wrenched her leg. She will be out of training for a few days.

Oshawa Loses Claim Case to Glen Williams

The judicial committee of the C.L.A. met last night at the Iroquois Hotel to deal with several claims put in by teams in the organization.

Glen Williams' claim for expenses against the Oshawa club was allowed and the latter club was suspended until such a time as they come over with the amount.

Preston has a claim against Galt and Maitlands claim that St. Catharines owes them some money. These two cases were laid over until the next meeting of the committee, which will be held next Monday or Tuesday.

There was a large crowd in attendance at yesterday's auction sale at Maher's Horse Exchange. The offerings were very large, and every type of horse was well represented. Promptly at 11 o'clock Auctioneer Jackson took the rostrum and opened the sale with a consignment of contractor's horses from Kline & McDonald (Limited), Mississauga, Ont. These were a fine lot of big horses and were sold with the money. Next followed the harness and blankets belonging to the same shippers, and these were soon sold, also a number of wagons and lorries belonging to another consignment. The sale continued until five o'clock, the bidding being brisk, but the prices realized were below the average. There is very little life to the market at the present and horses are not realising enough to make it worth the dealers
