THIRD BIG EVENT FOR CAR PETER

ST. JOHN—LIVERPOOL.
NEW YORK—LIVERPOOL.
Princeton, Lincolnton
Drexler, Money, Orders and Tr
Cheques.

Special to The Toronto World.

Port Huron, Mich., June 26.—(Car Peter) signalized his last appearance on the short split circuit by winning his third $1000 event, but he had to go an extra mile to turn out the trick. This superbly-bred young trotter is named in all of the big stakes on the grand circuit, and will start for the second time North Randall, where it starts in the Ohio state.

His race looked like a gift to the son of Peter the Great, but Lee went away fast in the opening heat and broke on the first turn, after which the driver's only concern was to play safe. Meanwhile, the other horses tried to herald and won easily from Evil Rock; next time Car Peter trailed Bonnie until the heat was over, then slipped to herald on his business. The other heats were easy for Car Peter. He did not show any danger and had something to spare at all times. Vic Fleming acquired the championship heat and broke at Mt. Clemens and appears to like it. He did not make his drive soon enough in the first heat, but slipped to herald by a nose. After that Fleming took no chances, grabbing the pole in the second heat and hanging on to the rest of the race.

Harry Calkins of Fowlerville, uncovered a fast trotter in Lady Loretta, winner at the 220 event, and she beat Oak Tree, the very best of the 210 mile, broke in the second which went Oak Tree and trotted by them when ready in the other heat.

Thursday's card is a good one with the 214 trot, the feature, and the 217 and 220 pacing classes. The track was much improved today and the attendance was large.
