EATON'S DAILY STORE NEWS

More Than Likely Something on This Page Will be "Just What She Wanted"

You Will Agree That These Are Charming Bits of Sterling Silver

v York Fancies, -an offering of as this would be a welcome gift in almost any household. It is of clear glass, with a delicately engraved flower pattern. The top, and long-handled spoon are of sterling silver. Price complete, $3.50. b $5.00 inated "Silent l the storytreet West N SAVES A charming little

HOLE BRIGADE aff Officer Shoots Eight Germans hine Gunners.

Son, Limited

D TO BLOW UP PERTY IN CANADA

an Officer Testifies Kaltschmidt on Con-iracy Charge.

it and five others here ng to the United States that Kaltschmidt engo to Canada to blow and other property. The c said, were discussed in onsulate at Chicago. He this discussion, C. A.

ormer German consu said, he directed depart agents to a spot where seventy sticks of dug up. He denied, of on, that he had been unity to testify for the

when he saw that Kalt getting people into the nation of the witness was

COME TO CANADA

er Arranges With Amer-

Dec. 10 .- Arrangeme de between the food ad vas announced tod

n seed oil and its prove into Canada for loc sumption. As Canada thogs for its own us es will not be gran ministration proposes da is supplied with ce saries for its own pe e period.

l tomorrow.

ONSEED OIL

orgette, has bodice of cloth of gold, broaded in rose. h., Dec. 10.—William M. of 12 persons originally Albert C. Kaltschmidt, on A handsome navy blue charmeuse model, for fternoon wear, has long graceful sleeves of conspiracy charge. black Chantilly lace. stand as a government resumption of the tria

An evening gown in black net is made lovely with green and jet sequins. ore that he was a ser-United States artiller. Houston, Texas, and that Also in the offering are many New York tently curved. Price, $2.25.

Paris Dresses Wednesday, $69.50 iginal Models from Premet, Jenny FTERNOON and evening gowns of the loveliest sort, are included in this collection of models to be featured as a special price-attraction for

By Jenny is a superb coat-dress in black ilk velvet, bordered and collared with beaver.

An exquisite evening frock in oyster white ith is likewise banded with the same soft

Another beautiful evening gown in black

Wednesday morning at 10.30.

and Doeuillet Greatly Reduced in Price. SALE WEDNESDAY AT 10.30 A.M. todels for afternoon and evening wear-disactive, fashionable costumes.

All will be greatly reduced—some to less than half price-for quick clearance on Wednesday morning at 10.30 o'clock, at $69.50. -Third Floor, James St.

pour tea, will hail this new Tea Strainer with enthusiasm It is of sterling silver, and the bowl beneath is of glass. The silver rim is in one with the ebony handle, and may be removed from the glass bowl.

L. Almost classic in its simplicity

is this graceful

Bon Bon Dish, of

heavy sterling silver. Its only adornment is a conventional leaf

design on

C. These quaint little Salt and Pepper Shakers are of heavy sterling silver. Their shape is particularly good, the flat base such that they will not easily tely fashioned in the shape of a tiny Tea-pot, this little Tea-ball of sterling silver, is gracefully etched in scroll cellent workmanship. It chain and finger ring.

N. Another Napkin Ring of exceptionally heavy hall-marked silver. The design is of the engine-turned variety, so especially in voque this season, with a round shield for initials. Its price

O. This Butter Dish of pierced sterling silver with heavy glass lining, would win the heart of any woman. It has conveniently shaped handles and three sterling pierced in the blue glass. Price,

H. To match the pierced silver mustard pot, and Salt Cellars, lined with blue glass and accompanied by tiny Spoons of With gilt bowls, they are $4.00 a

P. If she appreciates table fittings, which are unusual, without being bizarre, she will delight in a pair of these sterling silver Salt Cellars. They are of octagonal shape, in a colonial design, and with two tiny spoons are priced at, $4.50 a pair.

Tea-ball of sterling silver, with its long handle ending in a square ring? It will prove an additional temptation to the Dish of pierced sterling silver. It is a table accessory afternoon cup of tea. Price. of which no hostess can

-Main Floor, Yonge St.

R. Isn't it delightful, this little ball feet, Price, $5.00. Bouillon Cups and Tea Cups---They Are Always Favorites as Gifts specimen of the ever popular gold rimmed China, at a most moderate price. The narrow border is effectively outlined with a line of black, and the handles are of plain matt gold. This dainty bouil-lon cup costs but 50c. or $6.00 a graceful in line is this Bouillon Cup and Saucer of Aynsley China. Aynsley China. With its rich gold with its rich gott border in raised desian, and the creamy whiteness of its China it would be a digni-fied addition to any well appointed table. Its price is $1.75 each, or $41.00 a dozen.

U. This handsome Bouillon Cup and Saucer would harmonize with the most elaborate dinner set, with its gold patterned border, of deep Cobalt blue. It is of snowy white Adderley China, and has plain gold handles. It is priced at $1.25 each, or $15.00 a dozen.

V. Quaint in shape and pleasing in color, this Cup and Saucer would look charming on the tea tray. Pink and lavender roses, with bright green leaves. meander over a border of solid black-suggesting the so fashionable back-ground of chintz. The price withal is but 45c each, or $5.40 a dozen.

should delight the beauty loving hostess. It has a broad border of deep blue, richly patterned in gold, and the handle is of plain matt gold, of Adderley China. Price, $1.00 each, or $12.00 a dozen.

Extraordinary "Special" in Smart Blouses

On Sale Wednesday at $4.95-Almost Half Their Usual Prices

EORGETTE crepe of excellent quality composes the blousesin flesh pink, ivory, white, maize, yellow, and black, and very charmingly are they embellished with collars and cuffs of satin, and embroidery in self-toned and contrasting silks.

One attractive model in flesh pink is embroidered in black; another in malze, is embroidered in blue; a third in ivory or flesh with collar of satin, is inset with medallions of filet lace.

They will be placed on sale on Wednesday morning, at $4.95-very considerably less than the usual price.

-Third Floor, Centre.

After a busy morning's shopping try

Lunch in the Grill Room

Many new dishes, deliciously cooked. have been recently introduced. You will

-Fifth Floor.

WAY TROOPS. is—J. Simik, Russia.
J. Dupre, Casselli Birmingham, Engla Deer, Alta.; F. E. Lon

1. Following the ideals of the Will'im and Mary period, this mahogany Tea-table shows the familiar brace, holding together its four feetalso the bulb motif higher up. The delachable tray has a glass top. It is specially priced at

Furniture as Useful in Purpose as it is Interesting in Appearance this walnut: excep beautifully inlaid and has A handles, and shows excel-lence of workmanship i n every detail. Price, $6.50.

2. Decidedly ai-

tractive yet practical withal, is this little Sewing Table of walnut, or maho g a n y; with its two drop leaves, it occupies but little space when not in use.

It is fitted with two drawers with glass knobs—notice too, that it ex-ploits the brace and bu's motif, of the William and Mary design—and

4. This little Foot-stool of fumed oak, with a loose leather cushion would prove a welcome gift to some elderly man or woman, or anybody else, on your Christmas list, for that matter—anyone who is interested in adding to the comfort of a living-room. A soft brown is its color and the price is $5.00.

Remember That the Shopping Service will do your Christmas purchasing for you if you live out of town, and are not able to come to the Store to select your gifts personally. An experienced shopper will carefully choose anything described on this page, or anything else you may wish which is not included in the Mail Order Catalogue. Mark your order "Shop-

T. EATON COMENTS 10.50, Price, $10.50,

6. Another delightful Sewing Table of walnut. It also is reminiscent of the days of William and Mary, but is none the less most practical for the woman of to-day. It has octagonal ends, with hinge lids, and two glass-knobbed centre drawers, and its special price is

K nitting-ball

stand a veritable boon. The holder is of ample size, and has a groove, through which the wool clips casily. The handle ena-bles the knitter to carry it conven-

-Furniture Bldg., James and Albert Sts.

Christmas Changes in Locations of Departments

Toyland, Main Floor, Furniture Building; Sheet Music now on Fifth Floor; new Handkerchief circles on Second and Third Floors; new section of Children's Christmas Books on Third Floor; Christmas Calendars Section on Second Floor. Clocks are now on Fourth Floor.

