We emphasize umbrellas again because we know by our trade in them from one holiday season to another that an umbrella is a very much appreciated gift-we make every umbrella we sell-and because we believe we have the big-

D. Reid, a county councillor, was nombe able to stand on it.

After Mr. Dickenson had declined the McClement were submitted to the convention. Mr. Reid won out on the first wention. Mr. Reid won out on the first ballot, getting 70 votes while the other two got only 40 between them. An unanimous nomination was then tendered to Mr. Reid.

Hon. John Dryden, in addressing the convention, said that all the abuse and charges heaped on Premier Ross could be summed up in a word of three letters and spelled out as "Lie." He admitted that immoral acts had been committed by the Liberals, and these were to be deplored. The premier and his colleagues could not be held responsible for them, any more than a church or a society could be held responsible for the act of individuals.

Mr. Dryden said he proposed to send to California for an expert to steach
