No Christmas Parcels From Canada This Year For Our Men In German Prison Camps

Toronto, Oct. 18-Official word has been received here from Sir Robert Borden that a cable from Sir George Perley, in London, states that the war office is unable to grant the permission asked for by the relatives of Canadian prisoners of war in Germany to send them parcels at Christmas. This will come as a great disappointment, as last Christmas parcels were sent from home. It had been hoped that it would again be permitted.

Copenhagen, Oct. 18-Naval and military operations against the Aland Islands, possibly may be the next step in German strategy. Various German newspapers point out the desirability of sewing up the Gulf of Finland by acquiring the bases to the north as well as to the south of the entrance. The Aland Islands, of which there are eighty, are in the Gulf of Bothnia, north of the entrance to the Gulf of Finland.

German Warship Lost?

Copenhagen, Oct. 18-Rumors of the loss of a German warship in the Sound, the narrow strait between Denmark and Sweden, are being circulated. The reports are indefinite and unconfirmed, but the bodies of two German narines and a sailor have drifted ashore in the vicinity of Elsinor, Denmark.

LONDON PAPER ASKS WHAT OF ALLIED FLEETS IN VIEW OF BALTIC HAPPENINGS

London, Oct. 18—(Montreal Gazette cable)—Some of the newspapers comment on the inactivity of the overwhelming forces of the allied navies in respect to the Baltic. The Pall Mall Gazette says:—

"It becomes rather strikingly paradoxical that when the Germans undertake an important naval offensive our superior fleet, whether above or below take an important naval offensive our superior fleet, whether above or below water, should have nothing to say." The paper suggests that the public might be profitably told the reason, even if it is because of the disorganization of the paper suggests that the public might have nothing to say."
