CENTURIES OLD CROSS IS STOLEN

Found in Possession of Glasgow Ice Cream Peddler—in Treasure.

23—Here was an opportunity for a collector of antiques missed. It was to be one of Italy's oldest crosses, estimated at $200,000 and $300,000, a recent extradition case. It was found in the possession of a Glasgow ice cream peddler, who was charged with the cross from the parish of Bargo Collegiate, Aquila.

Inspector McCabbe, of the Glasgow police, said the accused told him he found the cross among the ruins of a castle in Messina after the earthquake. Later he said the cross came from France and was brought by his ancestors hundreds of years ago and handed down from one generation to another.

After a late sitting the magistrate said he had no doubt that this was the missing cross. There was also evidence from Italy that the accused was in a position geographically and physically to obtain the cross. According to the Italian laws the cross should not have been taken out of the country. The magistrate made an order for the extradition of Franchi to Italy.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Algie-Gordon.

Moncton, N. B., Dec. 22.—In the First Baptist church here at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, Miss Josephine J. Gordon, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Gordon, was united in marriage to Robert Laird Algie, of Toronto, with Rev. Dr. Bowley Green officiating. Only immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties witnessed the ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a suit of brown velvet, with beaver trimmings and hat to match. She carried a corsage bouquet of roses. The groom was supported by Timothy H. O'Brien. The First Baptist church choir sang during the ceremony "The Voice that breathed O'er Eden." Mr. and Mrs. Algie, following the ceremony, left for the home of the groom in Toronto, and also will visit Buffalo and Niagara Falls. The presents received were very numerous and beautiful, testifying to the esteem in which the principals are held by a very wide circle of friends. The bride is one of Moncton's popular young ladies and is prominent in musical and literary circles. The groom, an employee of T. Eaton Company, is prominent in athletic and played ball in the senior Moncton league last season as a member of the Y. M. C. A. team, and later, of the all-star Moncton team.

RECENT DEATHS

Edward S. Treacart.

After an illness of a year's duration, the death of Edward S. Treacart occurred at his residence, 240 Millidge avenue, yesterday. He was a well-known resident of the North End and was proprietor of the City West Wash Laundry. He was a member of the Sons of England and also of St. Luke's church. The late Mr. Treacart's parents were the late Walter and Caroline Treacart. Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Harold W. and Murray E. at home; one daughter, Miss Helen M., at home; four brothers, John, Walter, Archibald and Robert, all at home, and two sisters, Mrs. J. Irons, of this city, and Mrs. H. Belyea, of the west side.

OXFORD DEFEATS

CAMBRIDGE TEAM

(Canadian Press Despatch).

London, Dec. 22.—In the seventh annual inter-varsity ice hockey match, Oxford, which was with one exception represented wholly by Canadians, overcame Cambridge by 27 goals to 0, according to a Reuter despatch from Murren, Switzerland.

Oxford was incomparably superior throughout and showed excellent speed and combination. Cambridge lacked practice and contrasted unfavorably with the well-trained dark-blues, whose superiority was due to the exhaustive eliminating trials and assiduous practice. Oxford had previously beaten the British Olympic team by a score of five to one.

HUN VIOLATION OF THE TREATY?

Paris, Dec. 22.—The council of ambassadors has granted permission to Germany to retain, until March 31, 200 Diesel engines, which have been the subject of allied controversy since the armistice. The council has been informed that Germany has secretly manufactured additional Diesel engines since the armistice. This would be in direct violation of the Versailles treaty.

THE LINK.

(By John Kendrick Bangs.)

Since I believe that life hath never an end, And all tomorrows on today depend, I'll live this day whatever mind I be in love and faith, and perfect charity. That in some distant hour 'vee'd by wrong, 'Twill form a link, dependable and strong, To hold me fast into my heritage Of truth that is man's primal anchorage.
