THE NORTH END RINK.

To the Editor of The Times:

Sir,—I noticed in last evening's paper an item relating to skating grounds for our North End boys.

If the party who made this statement were to take a walk through the city and out to Rockwood Park, don't you think he'd find something to fill the bill? "I'll say he would." J. A. J.

He is survived by his wife, six sons, one daughter, two sisters and four brothers. The sisters are Mrs. Jane Leire of New York and Dr. Anne Bennett-Jones of Portland. POLICE COURT.

Two men charged with being drunk, both of whom pleaded guilty, were fined sole offenders before the magistrate this morning. One of them was from a steamer now in port, and was allowed to go on paying his fine. The other was apparently in a surly mood, after his alleged excess of liquid refreshment last night and did not take kindly to the advice given him by the magistrate. When asked what he was going out to do at night, he said he had been out at twelve o'clock, that there were a lot of others out at the same time, and that was all there was to it. His Honor reminded him that he had been in the court thirty-three times and should have been arrested when seen in the street after seven o'clock. The accused said they should have shot him instead of arresting him. The magistrate asked him if he was ready to die, and he said he was as ready as a lot of other people he could name. He ended up in jail on a remand.

DOUBLE FUNERAL; MOTHER AND SON

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Stewart and Artemus Stewart of Shediac.

The town of Shediac lost two of their most respected citizens on Wednesday last, when Mrs. Elizabeth A. Stewart and her son, Artemus Stewart, passed away within twenty-four hours of one another. Mrs. Stewart was a native of Prince Edward Island, but had resided in Shediac for many years. She was in her seventy-ninth year, but was in good health until she contracted pneumonia. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. E. J. Lyle, of Concord, N. H., and three brothers, Edward, Artemus, and James Wood; three sons and two daughters. Her son, Artemus, had been in failing health for some time and the shock of his mother's death was too great a strain and he succumbed in a few hours. The surviving brothers are Henry, of Boston and James, of Moncton. The sisters are Mrs. Selina Dawson, of St. John and Mrs. Thomas Toole, of Halifax. The double sorrow to the surviving members of the family, who had to bear the loss of their father, John M. Stewart, a few years ago, calls forth the deepest sympathy of the entire community. The double funeral of mother and son was held at Shediac this afternoon.

NO WORD YET OF MELMORE HEAD

The steamer Melmore Head, which rescued the seamen from the ill-fated steamer Mod on Sunday, had not reported to the Direction-Finding Station at Red Head at 1.30 o'clock this afternoon. Her arrival here is eagerly awaited by shipping men all along the coast, as the names of those who were saved will not be known until that time. She is supposed to have been delayed by storms. It is expected that she will be reported some time over the week-end.

Omer Langlois, of the parliamentary press gallery, has been appointed to be secretary to Hon. E. Lapointe, minister of marine and fisheries.

A. A. U. OF C. BACK OF COVEY FOR A SPORT CLEAN-UP

Judge Jackson, President, Writes Encouraging Letter—General Meeting in St. John is Planned.

That the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada is behind President Covey of the Maritime Branch in his efforts to clean the slate in these provinces and make a sharp distinction between amateur and professional, is made clear from the following letter from Judge Jackson of the supreme court of Alberta, who is president of the A. A. U. of C., St. John, N. B.:

Dear Mr. Covey,—I have watched with considerable interest your fight on behalf of pure amateur sport in the maritime provinces. While there may have been in the past a difference of opinion as to the mingling of amateurs and professionals in an open manner there never has, as far as I know, been any doubt of the stand of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada on the question of professionals parading as amateurs. Once a man has transgressed our laws and made himself a class A professional he puts himself without the pale of pure amateur sport and cannot be permitted to play with or against any one holding an amateur card. You, no doubt, in the position of president of the Maritime Provinces Branch will come in for much criticism in the stand you have taken, but I do not see how you can do otherwise. If the officers of the Union will not uphold our rules, how can we expect any kind of adherence to the rules by the players? The rules are made to be lived up to and not to be cast aside whenever a local condition would seem to require it.

I hope you will receive the fullest support from the officers and others interested in clean amateur sport down by the sea.

Yours sincerely,

I. A. JACKSON.

Mr. Covey said this morning that he was planning to invite a general meeting some afternoon next week of the physical committees of St. John organizations and the members of the board of government representing all clubs in St. John. Then there might be a good talk over the whole situation. Meantime meetings of the various organizations might be held to discuss the matter among themselves.

JOHN THORNTON NOT SO WELL

Threatened With Typhoid—Police and Fire Estimates to Council in His Absence—County Secretary Also Laid Up.

Commissioner Thornton, who has been confined to his home through illness for the last week, and who was reported as convalescing, is again in bed under the doctor's care. He took a relapse yesterday and this morning it was reported that typhoid was feared.

As a consequence the estimates of the fire and police departments will be presented at a special meeting of the council this afternoon, when the head of the departments being present. This becomes necessary as, according to the law all the estimates must be passed upon by the council before the end of January.

J. King Kelley, county secretary, who has been confined to his home through illness for the last three or four days, was reported this morning considerably improved.

ADVISES CAUTION

Health Officer, However, Does Not Expect Repetition of 1918 Influenza Conditions.

There is very little possibility of an epidemic of influenza, such as raged in 1918, occurring in the near future, according to Dr. William Warwick, district medical health officer. He said today that the number of cases reported to the local board this winter is very small, and these have been of the type known as mild or simple influenza, or grippé, which leaves no after-effects as did the type which prevailed in 1918. He said that what is known as a pandemic of the disease, that is, its occurrence over the greater part of the world at one time, happens only at distant intervals. A pandemic of the disease in severe form occurred in 1918, and its last occurrence before that time was in 1891-92. Still Dr. Warwick advises citizens to take the usual care, as the prevailing form is liable to cause pneumonia, if proper precautions are not taken.

ST. JOHN MAN A SUCCESS ON STAGE

Guy C. Hansen Helps Out a Company in Halifax; Gets Offer of Permanent Place.

Accounts in Halifax papers, of a Scottish play, "Bonnie Briar Bush," which is being presented this week in the Majestic Theatre there, tell of the clever acting of Guy C. Hansen, who recently joined the cast. Mr. Hansen, who was formerly a resident of this city, has been in Halifax for two years, where he played in the Majestic Theatre orchestra and also conducted a commercial brokerage business. Recently the company lost one of the members of the cast and were in a dilemma as to how to carry on. Mr. Hansen, who was formerly one of the prominent amateur actors in this city, and who also had some experience on the professional stage, offered to help out. That he made a success is evident, and he has been offered a permanent position with the stock company for next season. Among the plays Mr. Hansen took leading parts in while here were "Within the Law," "What Happened to Jones," and "A Rival by Request."
