WITH THE BOWLERS

Last night's double header in the Y. M. C. I. alleys attracted quite a crowd of spectators who uproariously rooted for their respective favorites. The premier game was between the Robins and Hawks and the latter team rolled a very respectable total of 1883, while the former had 1294.

WRESTLING.

Chicago, March 2.—Johnny Meyers of Chicago, claimant of the middleweight wrestling championship, and Hemic Edgel, of Duluth, will meet here tonight in a twelve round wrestling match. The rounds will be ten minutes each.

GOLF.

Municipal Links for Boston.

Boston, March 2.—This city, the first to have a municipal golf links, is to have an eighteen hole course for public play for the first time. Announcement was made today by J. B. Shea, chairman of the city park department, that the offer of D. Ross, links architect and professional player, to lay out an eighteen hole course at Franklin Park, had been accepted and that the necessary financial provisions had been made for extending the nine hole system there to one of eighteen holes.

CURLING.

Hampton Rink Wins.

Four rinks of Hampton curlers defeated four from the Carleton Club yesterday afternoon and evening by a total of 46 to 41 points. The games were played on Carleton ice.

Win Match Game.

A rink from the Thistle Club skipped by W. H. Gambin defeated one from St. Andrew's, skipped by C. A. Beatey, by a score of 13 to 11. The game was played on St. Andrew's ice.

Thistles Win.

Yarmouth, N. S., March 1.—Two rinks from the Thistle Curling Club of St. John's (N. B.) defeated two rinks from the Yarmouth Curling Club here tonight by a score of 31 to 27.

CITY BOXING MEET.

Sanction for the holding of the city boxing championships on the night of March 15 has been given by the St. John Hockey Club, which is affiliated with the G. W. V. A. About twenty of the local boxers have already signified their intention of entering and close competition is expected. This meet precedes the Maritime meet by about two weeks, so it will furnish good test for the entrants and also provide a chance to size up the boys.

Montreal Gazette: "The prayers commending to Divine guidance the president, government, and the people of the United States, linked up with equal fervor and felicity the King of Great Britain and Ireland, his family, the British empire, her parliaments, and her peoples, on the occasion of the formal placing of a wreath of oak and laurel from British colleagues on Washington's monument in Wall Street, New York, were noteworthy, stressing, as they did, the warm friendship between the two great English-speaking peoples. It will be recalled that during the war period when United States soldiers and sailors were fighting side by side with their British comrades, the British Anglican prayer book on land and sea was so altered as to embrace prayers for the president and peoples of the United States, jointly with King George and his family and subjects."

OTHER RESCUE TO A SOMEWHAT LENGTHY LIST

of saving people from drowning in the Toronto Bay, are to receive public recognition from the city council of Toronto. A special committee of the city council is to propose some form of public and generous recognition.

Dempsy Asks Front Seat.

Unusual interest is being manifested in the bout between Tom Gibbons of St. Paul and Harry Greb, Pittsburgh, lightweight, which will be held in Madison Square Garden, New York, on March 13. This is indicated in the statement of Frank E. Conlry, general manager of the Garden, that 4,200 applications requesting 14,000 seats had been received at the Garden since the announcement that the match was closed. Eight cables from London and Paris are listed among the requests for reservations, according to Conlry. Two requests have come from Mexico City, three from San Francisco and others from Halifax, Montreal and Toronto.

"I could sell out the house without opening the box office," said Conlry yesterday. "But I intend to let New Yorkers have first chance at the available tickets. I received a letter from Jack Kearns this afternoon requesting that I hold six seats for himself and Jack Dempsy. In his letter Kearns said the champion wanted to be close to the ring-side, so that he could see every move ### made by Gibbons and Greb, as Dempsy expects to meet the winner."

Don't Delay Your Purchases

The Extreme Bargain Sale of Waterproofs for all members of the family at the United Sales Company's store, 105 Charlotte street, opposite Dufferin Hotel, is being continued every day and during the evening. Large numbers of keen buyers were on hand throughout the twelve-hour day to select rainproof apparel for approaching spring and summer. It is surprising the demand that has developed for motor coats. One citizen fitted his whole family with rain-dust coats for summer automobile trips and the cost was only slightly over $20. The sale continues merrily and the earliest comers get choicest goods.
