

Growing Girls

If your daughter's feet are to be pretty when she is grown up now is the time to choose shoes with care.

We advise the low heel, or military style; they're sensible, comfortable and dressy.

FOR REFERENCE ON PEACE TREATY

Washington, June 18.—President Wilson's challenge to submit the Peace Treaty to a referendum of the American people was accepted today by Senator Harding, the Republican presidential candidate.

Herbert Hoover, today, announced formally that he will support the ticket nominated by the National Republican Convention.

New York, June 18.—William G. McAdoo, son-in-law of President Wilson, who has been considered by party leaders as one of the principal candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination, announced tonight he could not permit his name to go before the San Francisco convention. "This decision," he said, "is irrevocable as the path of duty seems to me clear and unmistakable."

LIVED IN REIGNS OF SIX SOVEREIGNS

William Henry Best of River Glade, a Former Resident of Millstream, Dead, Aged 102 Years and 4 Months.

(Sussex Record.)
William Henry Best of River Glade, who passed away about a fortnight ago, had the distinction of being one of the oldest men in the province. He was 102 years of age on Jan. 24, 1920, and therefore was in his 103rd year, or to be absolutely correct, 102 years and four months old when he died. He was a native of Kings county, but for the past sixty-five years had been a resident of River Glade.

The deceased was a son of Richard Best, a native of Cornwallis, N. S., but who settled at Millstream, Kings county, and carried on the occupation of a farmer. His grandfather was Rev. Richard Best, Church of England clergyman and chaplain in the British army. The Rev. Mr. Best came out to this country at the time of the revolutionary war. His destination was to have been the United States, but he and his party got no farther than Halifax, when the war came to a close and their services were not required in the United States.

William Best was seven years of age when the Miramichi fire occurred and he remembered the event well. His father at that time was engaged in digging potatoes on his farm; they could see the smoke and the wind carried to their home in Kings county burnt leaves from the Miramichi district.

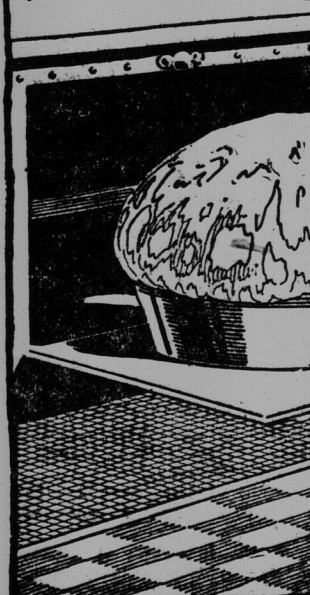

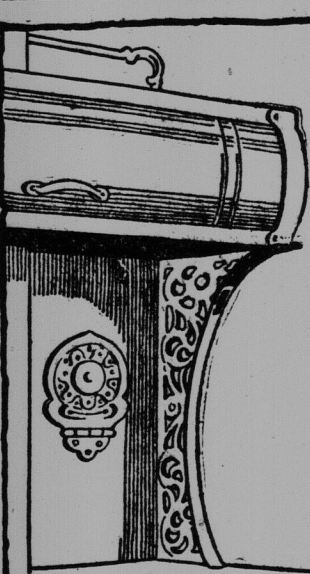

Mr. Best lived under six sovereigns and he well remembered and often talked of Queen Victoria's accession to the throne and the leading historical events following. He could readily recall the wars that the British Empire had been engaged in during the last century.

Mr. Best came from a Loyalist stock on his mother's side. His mother was a Miss Belding; her parents owned a large farm, well stocked, somewhere between Washington and New York. During the war their stock of cattle was all seized and slaughtered to make food for the American army. The male members of the Belding family were then told that they would have to join the American army or leave the country, and as they were Loyalists they did the latter and came to Sussex, N. B. Residents by this name in different parts of Kings county are descendants of these people. The grandfather, Jasper Belding, was a man of considerable prominence throughout the county and twice represented Kings in the local legislature.

Mr. Best worked on the construction of the Intercolonial Railway and at one time he was engaged with the firm of Grant & Sullivan handling supplies. He was brought up on a farm and a great deal of his time was spent in that occupation. For a time he was engaged in a mill on the St. John river below Fredericton.

As previously stated, the grandfather of Mr. Best was a Church of England chaplain in the British army and this is the faith that has been followed by his descendants.

"Land's Sakes!" The Flour that Rises to every occasion

"HERE'S that batch of bread I was so anxious about for the company tomorrow, risen perfectly, just as the Empire Flour Mills said it would.

"I was a little doubtful about changing, but that obliging grocer of mine, who seems to be always on the lookout for something good for me, recommended Alberta Flour. Said a number of his customers would have no other."

Try Alberta Flour, madam! You'll find it makes better bread and goes further than any other flour, therefore is economical and reduces living costs.
