

HANSON CASE CHARGE ISSUED

Dr. T. C. Allen Declares
There Was Professional
Misconduct

Detailed Statement of Allegation That Barristers' Society is to Take Up.

The text of the charge made by Dr. T. Carleton Allen, registrar of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick, against R. B. Hanson, K. C., M. P., became available today. This matter was expected to have come before the council of the Barristers' Society of New Brunswick yesterday, but owing to the absence from the province of Hon. Ivan C. Rand, attorney general, consideration of the charge has been deferred. It will probably come up on June 2.

Text of Charge.

Dr. Allen's charge is dated October 31, 1924, and is as follows: "That Richard B. Hanson, K. C., a barrister of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick, has been guilty of professional misconduct in inducing the registrar of the said Supreme Court to issue a decretal order of the Chancery Division of the said Supreme Court, purporting to have been made by the Honorable Justice White, one of the judges of the Chancery Division of the said court, on the sixteenth day of October, last, in the matter of Marjorie Helen Nevers and Lillian Caroline Nevers, infants, whereby Estelle M. Nevers, of the parish of Lincoln, in the county of Sanbury and province of New Brunswick, the guardian of the person and estate of the said infants, was authorized to use the income and corpus of the estate of the said infants for the maintenance and education of the said infants, the said barrister being well aware at the time he induced the said registrar to issue the said order, that it was not the decretal order made by the said judge of the said Chancery Division, but was directly contrary to the order of said judge in so far as the said decretal order authorized the said guardian to use the corpus or any portion of the corpus of the said infants' estate for the support, maintenance and education of the said infants."

DR. PUGLEY ESTATE.

Letters of administration of the estate of the late Honorable William G. Pugley have been granted to Mrs. Gertrude Pugley, his widow, William G. Pugley, son, and the Royal Trust Company. An inventory has not yet been filed in the Probate Court.

John Irvine.

The funeral of John Irvine, who died in Bridgetown, N. S., on Monday, was held this morning from Chamberlain's undertaking parlors, Mill street, to Trinity church, conducted by the Rev. R. B. Richardson, of Summerside, P. E. I., who moved here. Mr. Irvine lived in Saint John many years ago.

TWICE SELECTED

Commissioner Prink said this morning he recalled 20 years ago the site chosen for the abattoir of the British and Canadian Packing Company had been selected for the same purpose by Mr. Emmerson, of Boston, and J. H. Doody, of this city. The project was dropped however at the time. Commissioner Prink said the site must be a good one for this particular industry when an expert of 20 years ago and one of today agreed on it.

EVIDENCE CONTRADICTORY

Proceedings in the Police Court yesterday afternoon before Sitting Magistrate Henneberry were enlivened considerably by hearing of a case against Lottie Moore, North street, charged with using abusive and insulting language to Mrs. George Martin on May 15. Several witnesses were called for both sides and evidence was contradictory. Acquittal was found guilty of the charge but no sentence was imposed and she was allowed to go with a warning.

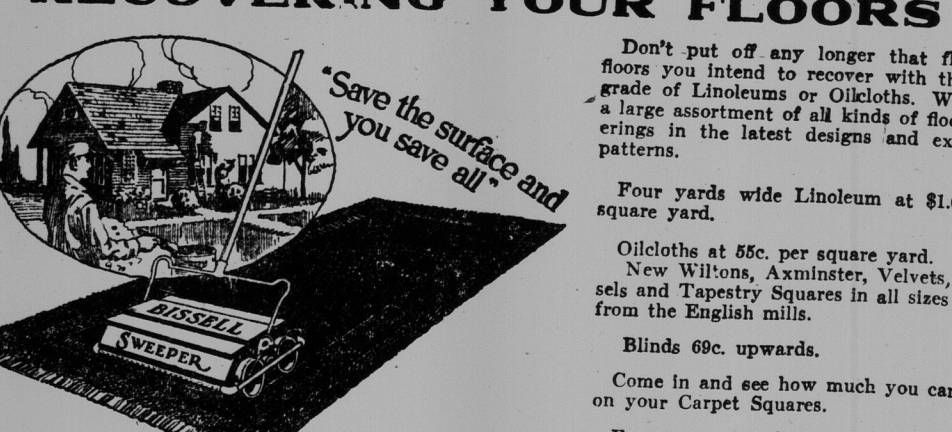

WANTS DRIVEWAYS

At the meeting of the city council yesterday an application from L. C. Ryan for permission to place two concrete driveways across the sidewalk in front of his premises, 141-147 Princess street, was referred to Commissioner Prink, with the request that he permit the building inspector for the erection of a filling station and wanted the driveway to give entrance and egress. Commissioner Prink said he had heard that an injunction might be applied for to stop the erection of this building in this locality.

CASE TO OTTAWA

Former Saint John Woman Detained on West Indies Steamship.

Mrs. Hilda Harding, widow of Philip S. Harding, who died here in 1924, and is buried in the soldiers' plot in Fernhill, was detained yesterday by Canadian immigration officials when she arrived from the West Indies on the steamer Clignetto. Mrs. Harding was served with the British forces during the war. He came to reside in Saint John after the war. Mrs. Harding was born in England, and came to Saint John when 11 years of age. She attended Centennial school here and was married here to Mr. Harding in 1915. Mr. Harding died in 1924, and Mrs. Harding went to Barbados on August 15, 1924. She came to Saint John on the Clignetto yesterday with a return ticket. It was said she wished to visit her husband's grave and transact some business. However, she was not permitted to land and is still on board the steamer. Her case has been referred to Ottawa and local people are taking an interest in it, and have written Ottawa. It is expected that some decision from Ottawa will be received in a few days. Mrs. Harding is a widow and has a son, James V. Lantian, chief immigration officer here, said that Mrs. Harding had been referred to Ottawa. It is understood it is wholly a question of domicile.

LETTER OF THANKS TO BOARD OF TRADE

Leeward Island Governor Writes—Many Inquiries About Roads Received.

Expression of thanks for the invitation to have their representative spend a day in Saint John en route to the West Indies-Canadian conference in Ottawa in June, came today to the Board of Trade from the Governor of the Leeward Islands. The board had addressed a letter to the governments of the various West India Islands inviting the delegates to this conference to spend a day in this city. Numerous letters are being received by the board for information about the roads in New Brunswick, and tourist routes. With the co-operation of the Tourist Association and the New Brunswick Automobile Association these inquiries are being fully answered.

Man in White Changing Color

Ten days travel about town is telling on the clothes of the Man in White. Doing no work to soil his Suit in the slightest way, the simple dust of the street air is already playing havoc with the spotless white he started out in.

One side of his costume is ripped apart, dry cleaned, and sewn back onto the half that stays soiled. Thus you can tell how much dirt has accumulated on the neglected side of the suit.

Before long the Man in White will find out how long a Suit can keep its natural colors and healthy cleanliness. Learn a moral from his experience and have the same regard for the condition of your outer garments as your inner garments.

At small cost your Suit, Dress, etc., is returned in new freshness within two days by the New System people. Theirs is the real Dry Cleaning—the only kind where the naptha is kept pure and fresh by continuous filtering. You wouldn't expect much from washing your hands in soiled water, would you?
