

before he died. Hon. George Shore and Dr. Boyle, were appointed by General Smyth, his executors.

In 1818 Dr. Boyle married a daughter of Dr. Boyd, and up to 1822, was on the army staff.

The following paragraph speaks for itself :

The undersigned, retiring from the Army is induced by his friends to reside in this city, and continue in practice of his profession. He therefore takes this method of making his intentions known.

April 30, 1822.

ALEX. BOYLE, M. D.

His residence at this time was the Disbrow Brick Building, Germain street, head of Church street. His practice in later years was chiefly as consulting physician with his brother practitioners. In manners Dr. Boyle was reserved and courtly. In walking he had a habit of throwing his head back as if gazing at the heavens. He was on army half pay to his death, which took place September 1st, 1858, at his residence St. James street, near Reed's Point.

DR. JOHN BOYD.

Dr. Boyd was a graduate of Windsor College, N. S. In 1807 Andrew Cochran, Edward J. Jarvis, James Anthony Barclay, Hibbert Binney, Thomas Paddock and John Boyd were candidates for four vacant scholarships on the foundation: Cochran, Jarvis, Barclay and Boyd were elected. Dr. Boyd obtained the decree of M. D. from the Aberdeen Medical College. His father, dying a few months after his return to St. John, opened a fine field for practice. In 1821 he was appointed Surgeon to the Marine Hospital, a position he held to his death. In 1831 Dr. Boyd married a daughter of the late Henry Wright, Collector of Customs. For a number of years he was President of the Saint Andrew's Society and of the Sacred Music Society. Dr. Boyd was of a kind and benevolent disposition, tall and of fine appearance. While the members of the medical profession generally keep a horse to visit their patients, Dr. Boyd never was the possessor of one. His residence, from his marriage to his death, was in the southern end of the stone building on Prince William Street, near Reed's Point, known as the Wright building. In Trinity Church there is a stained glass window, on which is inscribed "John Boyd, M. D., born July 1, 1792, died 27 August, 1857."
