Weekly Herald SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 23

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Portland Fifth Ward Bill has been assented to by the Lieut. Governor.

McCoy, charged with indecent assault on Naomi Flowers, was acquitted by the jury.

If your taxes are not paid on or before Monday you can't vote at the civic elections for Aldermen and Councilors.

We have to thank Mr. James B. Daly, of the firm of McCafferty & Daly, who is at present in England selecting dry goods for the firm, for late English papers.

There was a run on the Maritime Bank of this city for a few days during the early part of this week, caused by an injudicious remark made by some person.

Mr. Covert, the leader of the Opposition in our Local Government, has made a motion of want of confidence in the Government.

We ASSURE our esteemed contemporary, the Herald, that it was not out of any disrespect that we did not reply to length to its article on the Huntingdon Hunt.

The Courier knows that we did not write to dictate to the electors of Charlotte County.

Mr. De Vin's and Mr. Gillson's exacting will to the Herald, and the Herald's refusal to remove the Herald's Island Sea-dial from the view of controversy.

denise de Sciences a remarkable memoir on the real flames seen at the time of the solar eclipse of the 8th of July, and he obtained and described some good photographs during the progress of that eclipse.

CIVIC MATTERS. The time for holding the civic elections is rapidly approaching. Although there has been the usual amount of complaints against the present rulers, very little has yet been done to bring about a change.

THE RELIEF AND AID SOCIETY. Last week we published a communication directing attention to the fact that the Relief and Aid Society of this city were seeking incorporation. We hope that for once the citizens of St. John will give this matter the attention that it demands.

THE TELEGRAPH AND O'DONOVAN ROSSA. The Telegraph of Wednesday morning contained the following: 'The visit of Donovon Rossa to Toronto has been a most interesting one to the Irish and those who sympathize with his cause.'

WASHINGTON LETTER. A letter from Washington, D. C., March 11, contains some interesting particulars relative to the late administration of President Hayes.

NOTES FROM OTTAWA. Mr. Gault, 1782—Since we last mentioned him, he has been very active in the cause of the Liberal Government.

THE PORTLAND TOWN COUNCIL ELECTIONS. Much interest is now being manifested in the approaching Portland election which will be held on the 27th of April.
