

Myrtle Lodge, No. 2.—The mother lodge of the District is doing exceedingly well having put fourteen through the Knight Rank during the year. The attendance of members is good, and is in good financial standing.

Prospect, No. 10.—Has not improved in membership as it should, considering the good material they have in officers. I hope it will take fresh courage next year and raise its standard. It is in a sound financial position.

Mizpah, No. 22.—Has done exceedingly well this year, having added twelve knights. It has a good set of officers who memorize the ritual very well, and it is in a prosperous condition financially.

London, No. 33.—Has not advanced in membership as I would expect of it, but having lately come into the city I anticipate great things by next year if they get a little more enthusiasm into their work. It has the best of knights in the lodge and is in good financial position.

Columbian No. 37.—Last but not least, the baby lodge of the city bids fair to become the banner lodge of the district. It has put several good useful knights through this year, and more advancing through the ranks. Its officers are attentive to duties and being mostly military men have good discipline in lodge. Its funds are in good condition.

On May 12th, we had our first church parade and a very successful one too, being admitted by parade critics to have been the cleanest, best disciplined turnout seen in the City of London, the praise for which is due to the good Marshal we had. It has brought Pythianism to the front and was the means of several joining our ranks. I called a meeting of Past Chancellors to elect my successor to which about 20 responded and the unanimous choice fell to Bro. A. G. McWhinney, of Prospect Lodge, No. 10, a thorough Pythian in every sense of the word, who I am sure will do credit to the order and honor to the district he represents. At same meeting we formed a Past Chancellors Association for the good of the order in general, and the city lodges in particular. Trusting that the ensuing year will be one of unbounded success for the order in Ontario.

Yours in F. C. and B.,

B. CADWALLADER,

LONDON, June 11th, 1895.

R. H. MCCONNELL, Esq., Grand Chancellor of Ontario.

Dear Sir and Bro.,—As D. G. C. for Essex County I have much pleasure in reporting to you that since the Grand Lodge meeting here last August Pythianism has experienced a decided "boom." The officers and members of Friendship Lodge, No. 16, and Windsor Lodge, No. 35, seem to have become imbued with new life and enthusiasm such as was never experienced here for
