ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., FEBRUARY 11, 1902.

SOUTH AFRICA.

In the British house of lords recently the following resolution was adopted without division:—

"That in the opinion of this house it is only by the vigorous prosecution of the war and through the surrender of the Boer guerrilla forces still in the field that a satisfactory and lasting peace can be assured, and that this house approves, in these respects, and heartily supports, the action of his majesty's government."

The Earl of Wemyss, who moved the resolution, made the following pertinent remarks:—

His lordship explained that he moved the resolution because nothing definite on the matter has yet been said in either house. He maintained that the war was not caused by a desire to absorb the Transvaal and the Orange Free State by the desire to secure the gold mines, by the question of the franchise or the suzerainty, by the Jameson raid, or by the personal action of Mr. Rhodes, Lord Milner, or Mr. Chamberlain. The sole cause was the wish of the Boers to drive the British into the sea and become masters of South Africa. Not only at home, but in the colonies, the almost universal feeling was that the war was both necessary and just, and before any question of peace could arise the guerrilla bands still in the field had been scattered. Then Great Britain, with her usual generosity, would give to the Boers all those concessions and all that freedom which, at different periods, had been granted to other nationalities within the British empire. Lord Tweedmouth, who had been the liberal sjambok in the lower house—(laughter)—in a speech at Edinburgh, declared that the government could never make war or bring about peace.
He feared that the peace which his noble friend and his party had in their minds was the peace of Majuba—the fons et origo of all the evil which had since occurred in South Africa, the peace which Mr. Gladstone declared to be magnanimous, but which the Boers regarded as simply pusillanimous.
(Hear, hear.) He thought the nation was under the deepest debt of gratitude to Lord Rosebery, Mr. Asquith, and Sir Edward Grey for the patriotic part they had taken in regard to the war. (Cheers.) With regard to the attitude of the foreign press towards us, that was due to the words "methods of barbarism" used by Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, who had not the courage—he might almost say the decency—to retract, or apologize for using that expression in criticising the government's conduct of the war. As for the future peace of South Africa, a high official at Cape Town had given him his opinion that the Boer would become in South Africa what the Sikh was in India—our best soldier.

PIERCE JOURNALISM.

In St. John's, Newfoundland, there is a legal gentleman, Judge Prowse, who draws an annual stipend of $1,200 as remuneration for the performance of his duties. Lately he has been appointed secretary to the Fisheries Commission at a salary of $400 a year additional. The Daily News of St.
John's is distinctly opposed to the appointment and in expressing its disapprobation, it uses language that is "frequent and painful and free." In the beginning, before the editor got fairly warmed to his work, Judge Prowse is politely termed a "fatted sow." This is because of the extra $400. When the extra box of vituperative adjectives arrives in the sanctum the writer lets himself loose. The appointment is said to be "a fraud, a scandal, disgraceful, wanton and indefensible, an outrage upon the taxpayers, and a palpable job." The learned judge is referred to as "of less value than a fifth wheel to a coach, a state pauper, whose appointment is an abomination and unmitigated nuisance." The News further remarks that the $400 stipend paid would furnish two good school teachers for outposts, which goes to show that school teachers do not become bloated monopolists in Newfoundland. In the palmy days of the Telegraph it could hardly rival the News in abusive epithets.

POPULATION OF LONDON.

A recent Blue Book states the population of London to be 6,581,372. The administrative county of London, which covers 74,839 statute acres, has a population of 4,538,541; but Greater London, which includes all this and also parishes which for local government purposes are still parts of the counties of Surrey, Kent, Essex and Hertford, covers 448,419 acres and has a population of 6,581,372. The London Telegraph gives some interesting figures from the census. It says:—

On an average each of the 1,019,546 families in the county of London—not "Greater London," to which the figures do not apply—number rather over 4.4 persons each, while the females are shown to exceed the males by over a quarter of a million, and this disproportion is on the increase, for whereas ten years ago there were 1,116 to every 1,000 males, there are now 1,118.
Excluding the hotels and lodging houses, these households employ 15,425 male and 234,398 female servants, or one and a half to every hundred families of the former, and twenty-three of the latter.

Of the 4,538,541 persons enumerated in the county of London, 3,516,530 were natives of London; 35,481 were born in Wales and Glamorgan, being an increase of 4,129 since 1891; 58,695 in Scotland, an increase of 3,215; 60,311 in Ireland, a decrease of 6,254; and 33,350 in British colonies or dependencies. Persons of foreign birth numbered 161,222, and of these 20,354 were British subjects, 5, 621 were naturalised British citizens in 1891, and 15,733 were foreigners; an increase in the case of the last named of 40,324 since 1891.

The latest victim of smallpox had not been successfully vaccinated since early childhood. The fact is not without its lesson.

FERRY INVESTIGATION.

Considering the General Condition of the Service—Want More Pay.

The special committee on ferry matters met last evening and heard Capt.
Nico, who was appointed in 1878 at $50 per month. This was raised to $55 and the captain now asks $65 per month. He spoke of the rates of wages paid on tug boats varying from $60 to $70. Other matters such as the duties of the crew and the observance of the time table were discussed by him.

Capt. Estabrooks, who is one of the mates, told of his services. He and the captain agreed that a uniform would be desirable for the crew. The mates ask $45 per month, being now paid $40.

Engineer Lewis pointed out that 2nd class engineers were paid $70 to $75, to which latter figure the engineers asked to be advanced from $65, the present pay. He suggested a better mode of fastening the boats to the floats.

Allan H. Lambert, a deckhand, was also heard. He was satisfied with $38.50 per month, his present pay.

Collector Jas. F. Carney told of the condition of the west side toll house and described his general duties in the service. He was appointed ten years ago at $35 per month, raised to $38.50, and now asks $45.

Gateman Frank Theall also asked an increase from $38.50 to $45. He has been 19 years in service. He thought there should be a janitor for the west side toll house in addition to the gate-men.

The committee adjourned to meet at the call of the chair some evening next week, when the rest of the crew can be heard.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES.

A regular meeting of the school trustees was held last night, at which all the members were present except Messrs. Allen and Maxwell.

T. J. Allen made application for a position on the teaching staff. Complaints were made of annoyance at different schools by advertising men, particularly in the amusement line, frequenting the vestibules of the school buildings, and forcing hand bills on the children. No action was taken, the board considering this a matter for the police.

The building committee recommended that $1,000 be assessed for sanitary arrangements in Aberdeen school.
Some injury was reported to the roof of Albert school, west end, during the recent storm. The financial committee having met previous to the general meeting, discussed the estimates.
The report was adopted and a number of bills passed. The estimates are as follows: Teachers' salaries, $56,070; office salaries, $1,500; water, fuel and light, $6,500; caretakers, $5,392; rent and insurance, $4,403; printing and advertising, $300; repairs, $5,000; incidental expenses, $1,500; school supplies and apparatus, $500; debt interest and sinking fund, $18,776; bank interest, $1,200.

The secretary's report shows an enrollment of 6,348 pupils; average attendance, 5,485, being a percentage of 86.

Bicyclists and all athletes depend on joints limber and muscles in trim.

NORTH END CONCERT.

The concert given in Union Hall last evening by the North End W. C. T. U. in aid of the memorial fountain fund, was attended by a large and highly appreciative audience. Dr. Gilchrist presided. The programme presented consisted of solos by A. C. Ritchie, Miss Schuts and Rev. A. G. H. Dickie; a selection by a quartette composed of Mrs. Freeze, Miss Schuts, Mr. Freeze and Mr. Haines; club singing by A. J. Selby; violin solo by Miss Smith; reading, Mrs. Brown, and a piano duet by Misses Smith and Manning.

ST. STEPHEN'S GUILD.

The programme at the meeting of St.
Stephen's Church Guild last night was prepared by the missionary committee and based upon the subject, "The Ethics of Cathay." The most interesting feature of the interesting evening was a thought-provoking and carefully prepared paper on "The religions of China," read by Mrs. Wisdom. Readings bearing upon the Chinese question in various phases were given by Mrs. Charles Drury, Mrs. A. W. Macrae, Mrs. S.
Robertson and Henry Page, and the programme closed with a charming solo by Mrs. Freeze.

HOUSES TO LET.

Citizens having houses or flats to let should take advantage of the Star's wide circulation to advertise them.
The columns of this paper are eagerly scanned by thousands every evening.
The Star's rate for these advertisements is half a cent a word.

MONTREAL, Feb. 10.—Thomas Malcolm left tonight for St. John, having made arrangements for financing the Quebec and New Brunswick and the Restigouche and Western railways.
The former will run from Edmundston to Quebec and the latter from Campbellton to St. Leonards.

BRITISH PARLIAMENT.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—The under secretary for foreign affairs, Lord Cran-born, answering a question, informed Sir Charles Dilke (radical) that the American, German and British claims in Samoa were now before King Oscar of Sweden and Norway for arbitration.
The counter cases, which must be presented before March 1 were now in course of preparation. It did not appear that any proposal had been made by either Germany or the United States, to include in the scope of the arbitration the claims of Samoan natives.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—In the house of lords, the under secretary for the colonial office, Lord Onslow, referring to the government's intention to withdraw the British troops from Wei Hai Wei, added the information that the government had no intention of giving up so valuable a colony as Wei Hai Wei. It was extremely useful as a small arms store, for gunnery practice and as a sanitarium. The naval and military officials there had every reason to believe Wei Hai Wei would become increasingly useful and valuable.

The Chinese regiment at Wei Hai Wei, Lord Onslow added, would be gradually disbanded. It has been found that the position could only be fortified at a great expense. The colonial office took over the administration of the place Jan. 1. The rumors that Wei Hai Wei would be returned to China or handed over to any other power were entirely unfounded. This decision had been reached from the view point of naval strategy and there had been an extraordinary consensus of naval opinion in favor of the course adopted.

TOURIST ASSOCIATION.

The executive of the New Brunswick Tourist Association held a meeting yesterday, at which some plans for the year's work were discussed and the most interesting suggestions listened to from C. E. E. Usher, general passenger agent of the C. P. R. at Montreal, who was present and gave the association many hints which will be of value to them in the further prosecution of their work. John Montgomery, president of the Bay Chaleur Tourist Association, was also present, and told of the good results following the work of that association in drawing the attention of summer travellers to the many scenic and sporting attractions of that region.

Six grades of Red Rose tea at 25, 30, 35, 40, 45, 50 and 60c. per pound.

BUSY TIMES.

There are now nine steamers in the harbor, which presents an unusually busy appearance for this season of the year. All the berths at Sand Point are occupied. The Montenegro is taking in hay at the C. P. R. wharf, the Manchester Commerce is discharging and loading at No. 1, the Allan liner at No. 2, the Lake Ontario at No. 3, and the Donaldson boat Alceides at No. 4. The Fitzclarence is discharging general cargo on one side of the new government pier and the Hugin is getting rid of timber on the other side. The Lord Ormonde is putting out salt at the Pettigill wharf, and the Nemea is at the old government pier, where she will load hay.

THE GAME OF PING-PONG.

(London Telegraph.)
Ought ping-pong to be tolerated within the sacred precincts of the Palace of Westminster? This is the question that is at present agitating the minds of members of parliament, who having seen how much pleasure can be derived from the game elsewhere, perceive in it a means of lessening the tedium of life in the house of commons, where chess, draughts, and smoking are about the only relaxations permitted to weary legislators. It is feared that the first commission of works and the sergeant-at-arms would stand aghast at the spectacle of grave and reverend politicians bounding about the table in a frantic effort to hit the little balls.
Moreover, the problem of accommodation presents a difficulty. But the enthusiastic advocates of ping-pong are sanguine that before long they will influence the authorities to listen to their views.

CENTENARY OF HUGO'S BIRTH.

Celebration in Paris Will Last Six Days —Monument to Be Unveiled.

PARIS, Feb. 10.—The centenary of the birth of Victor Hugo will be celebrated in Paris with great brilliancy. The municipal council today drew up a programme of festivities lasting six days—from February 25 to March 2, inclusive.
The most imposing ceremony organized by the government, at which President Loubet, the ministers and all leading Frenchmen will attend, will be held in the Pantheon, February 26, which will be the chief day of the fetes.
A monument to Victor Hugo will be unveiled in the Square des Vosges in the afternoon. This promises to be a splendid function. President Loubet, the members of the cabinet and the municipal officials will take their places upon a platform erected facing No. 5, Hugo's house, a choir will render musical selections based on Hugo's
