OBSERVE THE ANNIVERSARY OF ST. GEORGE

Members of Local Society Attend Divine Service at Trinity Church — Scholarly Sermon by Rev. Ralph Sherman

The members of Saint George's Society observed the anniversary of their patron saint yesterday by attending divine service at Trinity church. A large congregation heard a scholarly sermon by the Rev. Ralph Sherman, chaplain of the society.

Assembling at the rooms in the K. O. P. building at 6.30 o'clock the members marched in procession to the church. The guests of the society included H. C. Rankin, vice-president of Saint Andrew's Society; T. H. Carter, second supreme vice-president of the Sons of England, and Mr. Lawson, supreme deputy of the Sons of England. In the procession the banner of the society was carried as well as the silk Saint George's flag.

On arrival at the church the members of the society took places on the south side of the nave of the church. The service was opened with the processional hymn, "St. George, St. George for England," sung by the choir in procession, headed by the banner of the society. The service was full of choral intoned by the Rev. Ralph Sherman, acting rector and chaplain. The lessons were read by the Rev. Mr. Lowth, the curate. There was a special Easter anthem as well as special patriotic hymns for Saint George's Day. The offertory was for the Seaman's Hospital at Greenwich, Eng., and amounted to a considerable sum.

The Rev. Ralph Sherman spoke from the Epistle, 6:13—"Put on the whole armor of God that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all to stand." He urged the members to don the Christian armor of which Saint Paul speaks and to look inside. He dwelt forcibly on the three parts of the clothing, the girdle of truth, the breastplate of righteousness and the feet shod with preparedness and appealed to the members of the society to put these principles in practice along spiritual lines in their relations with their fellow men. He referred fervently to those who had gone on active service and referred to the duty of those who remained at home to maintain a high standard.

Rev. Mr. Sherman asked the members to look within and to wear the armor which would result in their becoming better Christians and better citizens. His eloquent remarks made a profound impression on the large congregation.

After the service the society returned to their rooms and there passed resolutions thanking Trinity church for allowing them to hold their service there as well as expressing regret that their chaplain, Rev. Mr. Sherman, would soon leave the city for Toronto and wishing him every success in his new field of endeavor.

The oldest Presbyterian church in the city (St. Andrew's) yesterday celebrated the 132nd anniversary of its organization, and will tonight hold a congregational service in honor of the service of the celebration. The "Auld Kirk" was formed of persons of the Presbyterian faith who came to St. John with the Loyalists in 1783, and has been an influence for good in the community ever since its formation.

Some of the strongest men in the Presbyterian ministry have ministered to the congregation, and among these might be mentioned Rev. Dr. Donald, who ministered to them for 23 years, and Rev. L. G. MacNeil, who will be remembered by many in St. John as one of the most effective pulpits ever heard in this city.

Large congregations were present at all the services to return thanks for the large measure of success which had been granted to the church in carrying on its work. Starting with a small congregation, and worshipping in a small chapel a short distance away from their present home, they have grown in numbers and influence until today St. Andrew's occupies a foremost place in the denominational activities of the Presbyterian community.

They suffered the loss of their church home in the fire of 1877, but set to work and built the present magnificent structure at a cost of $78,000.

The preacher at both services yesterday was Rev. W. J. Clark, D. D., of Montreal, one of the leaders in the ministry of the denomination, and his eloquent and timely sermons were listened to with great interest by the congregation.

FOURTEEN KT. GOLD WATCHES, FINE MOVEMENTS, AT $25.00. These are heavy cases and are the same goods generally sold at $35.00 to $40.00. A brief examination will carry the conviction with it. Goods will be pleased to show you and give you any information about watches you may desire.

Those not wearing flags today refuse help to wounded soldiers.

MEMORIAL SERVICE IN ST. MATTHEW'S CHURCH YESTERDAY

Rev. Capt. Kubring Preached in Honor of the Members Who Lost Their Lives in the War

A large congregation attended St. John's (Stone) Church yesterday morning when Rev. Captain Kubring conducted a memorial service in honor of the members of the church who have lost their lives during the present war. The rector preached from the following text:

Rev. 20:13—"And the seas gave up the dead which were in it." Acts 24:15—"There shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust." Creed—"I believe in the resurrection of the body."

Acts 4:33—"And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection." The speaker said that it was with peculiar and chastened joy that he stood in church to bear witness to the truth of the resurrection of the body, which had been impressed upon him from the many experiences which he had at the front, and because of the necessity for comfort to those who have lost loved ones.

"It is appropriate that this should be our theme when after an absence of over two years, I recall the faces of those, who in the past years were shipped in our midst, and are now no longer in the flesh. The offer on their part of supreme sacrifice was in the wise providence of God accepted. Today they stand in the presence of the King. The names of George Morissey, Stanley K. L. Macdonald, Jack B. Hipwell, John A. Howarth and Frank R. Patweaver bring to mind the choicest of spirits who for a time sojourned in our midst, men who counted not their lives dear unto themselves. To the noble army of martyrs this past week has been added our young brother, Fred C. Manning. Highly endowed with unusual graces and talents, he readily heard the call of duty until he had crowded a rich experience into a brief, yet lovely, life cut off in the midst of his years, he has gone into the presence of his Saviour and Lord to receive the reward of a blameless life, leaving for us the sweet fragrance of an unselfish and victorious sojourn in our midst.

"There in that honored cemetery at Boulogne his body waits that day, when we shall see him again, the same body with new flesh and bones 'beauteous beyond compare.' Let us lovingly and in heartfelt sympathy stand and commit that precious body to await the resurrection!"

At the conclusion of the service of committal "The Last Post" was sounded on the organ clarion, and at the close of the service Chopin's Marche Funebre was played by the organist, D. A. Fox, the congregation remaining standing.

Keep PYRENE To Conquer Fire in Your Motor Car and Garage

Why take chances on using water or sand to put out fire in your motor car? Such things are rarely effective, except in very small fires that could be easily reached, and then they cause damage that could really have been avoided, had PYRENE been used on the fire. A few shots of PYRENE will put out the most stubborn fire, no matter what it results from. PYRENE is a chemical compound, used with a light powerful double-acting pump that even a child can operate. It won't damage, won't corrode, has an aromatic odor and high specific gravity.

HALIFAX PREACHER AT KNOX CHURCH

Rev. Thomas Stewart of Halifax occupied the pulpit at the morning and evening services at Knox Presbyterian church yesterday. In the morning he spoke from St. Luke, 2:35, "A light to lighten the Gentiles," and in his discourse he drew a strong contrast between the world up to the present time if Christ had not come and the world with Him a factor in it. "How is it," he asked, "we are seeing the worst war of history? Because Germany, in bringing on the war, rejected the first principles of Christianity, mercy and judgment, mercy and faith."

Dr. Stewart took for his evening text: 1st Chronicles, 29:5, "Who is the Lord?" He said: "We have seen those of young men that are consecrating themselves in a way that three years ago we would have thought impossible." As to the slacker, he said: "Hosts of young men in Canada, who are physically fit and able, will bitterly regret some day, when Frustration is destroyed, if they do not consecrate themselves in this war, and if they have any self respect left they will feel like taking to the woods when the boys come marching home."

nomination. He declined to discuss newspaper reports that there was a split in the ranks of the Liberal party in Northumberland because of feeling growing out of the recent majority contest in that town between W. B. Snowball and Dr. Loggie, a son of the present Liberal member, W. S. Loggie.

New Tweed Suitings.
