

JOHANNESBURG IN WAR TIME

THE TRANSVAAL METROPOLIS IS ALMOST DESERTED.

Outlanders' Fine Homes Have Been Occupied and the Chinese Shops Looted—The Boer in Warfare has a Liking for Cover—Description of an Armored Train.

The London Daily Telegraph publishes the following letter from Bennet Burleigh, its correspondent in South Africa, dated "Pretoria, October 24."

THE ARMORED TRAIN.

The Device Used in the Transvaal as Described by a Cape Town Paper.

The long-promised and much-talked-of armored train, built to patrol the Northern railway, has at last made its appearance, says the Cape Town South African News.

Each of the vehicles is about 30 feet long, and is capable of holding 60 soldiers, who will be able to fire from front, rear and sides.

CUBA PREPARING FOR ANOTHER REVOLUTION.

Havana, Nov. 28.—Although there has been a great deal of exaggeration with reference to rising in different parts of the island, there is no doubt that, despite the tranquility of the country some day a revolution will break out.

THE ATLANTIC RIOTOUS.

Captains Report Storms, Wrecks and Ice.

FATAL FIRE IN NEW YORK.

New York, Nov. 28.—Two persons were burned to death, several were injured and a score or more had a narrow escape in a fire that burned fiercely in a four story brick building at No. 140 Houston street, this afternoon.

A HORRIBLE VOYAGE.

DETERMINATION AND IGNORANCE TOOK THE MANAU-ENSE TO MANILA.

Engines Broke Down, Pumps Became Disabled, and the Transport Sprang a Leak—Bailing Her By Hand, She Was Worked from San Francisco Across the Pacific.

Manila, Nov. 28. (8.15 p. m.)—When the transport "Manau-ense" anchored in San Francisco, there was several feet of water in her hold and 400 grimy, greasy, had been passing buckets of water since Nov. 17, night and day.

THE MILLER SWINDLE.

Safe Opened at Last and Found to Contain No Cash.

New York, Nov. 28.—Wm. F. Miller, who conducted the Franklin syndicate in Brooklyn, has not yet been arrested and the police have not the faintest idea where he is.

ST. JOSEPH COLLEGE NEWS.

St. Joseph's College, Nov. 25.—The philosophy or graduating class, comes from various parts of the continent.

THE TERRIBLE TURK.

Boston, Nov. 28.—The Thanksgiving poultry trade was given a shaking up today by the condemnation by health officers of large consignments of western fowl.

THE CONVICTED BANK PRESIDENT.

Montreal, Nov. 28.—In the case of the president, William Wier, yesterday convicted of furnishing false statements of the bank's position to the government, his counsel, MacMaster, today made a motion for a reserved case.

DEATH OF REV. T. G. SMITH.

Kingsford, Nov. 28.—Rev. T. G. Smith, D. D., general secretary of the Queen's Theological Hall, and brother-in-law Hon. W. S. Fielding, died today after a brief attack of heart trouble.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

Salmon Falls, Nov. 28.—John Stockdale, aged 50 years, was run over by a freight train on the western division of the Boston & Maine R. R. here this evening.

A NEW STEAMER BEGUN.

Boston, Nov. 28.—The keel of the new steamer for the Boston and Bangor line, to be christened the City of Rockland, has been laid at McKim's yard in East Boston.

EXTEND A HEARTY WELCOME TO FINANCIAL MINISTER FIELDING.

A Brilliant Banquet in New Glasgow—Speeches by Mr. Fielding, St. Louis Davies, Hon. Mr. Blair and Others—An Address Presented by Mr. Fielding.

THE MAXWELL CASE.

The Attorney General Will Turn It Over to the Courts—Extradition Will Be Requested.

It is just a question whether or not the preliminary examination of Elmer Maxwell by the murder of Captain George Baisley, will go on or not.

STILL ANOTHER ROBBERY.

There is as yet no clue to the robberies committed in Trinity church, Mr. Edward McCreary's, Main street, or Mr. McDonald's residence on Douglas avenue, and another robbery occurred yesterday afternoon.

THE HORRIBLE VOYAGE.

Manila, Nov. 28. (8.15 p. m.)—When the transport "Manau-ense" anchored in San Francisco, there was several feet of water in her hold and 400 grimy, greasy, had been passing buckets of water since Nov. 17, night and day.

ST. JOSEPH COLLEGE NEWS.

St. Joseph's College, Nov. 25.—The philosophy or graduating class, comes from various parts of the continent.

THE TERRIBLE TURK.

Boston, Nov. 28.—The Thanksgiving poultry trade was given a shaking up today by the condemnation by health officers of large consignments of western fowl.

THE CONVICTED BANK PRESIDENT.

Montreal, Nov. 28.—In the case of the president, William Wier, yesterday convicted of furnishing false statements of the bank's position to the government, his counsel, MacMaster, today made a motion for a reserved case.

DEATH OF REV. T. G. SMITH.

Kingsford, Nov. 28.—Rev. T. G. Smith, D. D., general secretary of the Queen's Theological Hall, and brother-in-law Hon. W. S. Fielding, died today after a brief attack of heart trouble.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

Salmon Falls, Nov. 28.—John Stockdale, aged 50 years, was run over by a freight train on the western division of the Boston & Maine R. R. here this evening.

A NEW STEAMER BEGUN.

Boston, Nov. 28.—The keel of the new steamer for the Boston and Bangor line, to be christened the City of Rockland, has been laid at McKim's yard in East Boston.

EXTEND A HEARTY WELCOME TO FINANCIAL MINISTER FIELDING.

A Brilliant Banquet in New Glasgow—Speeches by Mr. Fielding, St. Louis Davies, Hon. Mr. Blair and Others—An Address Presented by Mr. Fielding.

THE MAXWELL CASE.

The Attorney General Will Turn It Over to the Courts—Extradition Will Be Requested.

It is just a question whether or not the preliminary examination of Elmer Maxwell by the murder of Captain George Baisley, will go on or not.

STILL ANOTHER ROBBERY.

There is as yet no clue to the robberies committed in Trinity church, Mr. Edward McCreary's, Main street, or Mr. McDonald's residence on Douglas avenue, and another robbery occurred yesterday afternoon.

THE HORRIBLE VOYAGE.

Manila, Nov. 28. (8.15 p. m.)—When the transport "Manau-ense" anchored in San Francisco, there was several feet of water in her hold and 400 grimy, greasy, had been passing buckets of water since Nov. 17, night and day.

ST. JOSEPH COLLEGE NEWS.

St. Joseph's College, Nov. 25.—The philosophy or graduating class, comes from various parts of the continent.

THE TERRIBLE TURK.

Boston, Nov. 28.—The Thanksgiving poultry trade was given a shaking up today by the condemnation by health officers of large consignments of western fowl.

THE CONVICTED BANK PRESIDENT.

Montreal, Nov. 28.—In the case of the president, William Wier, yesterday convicted of furnishing false statements of the bank's position to the government, his counsel, MacMaster, today made a motion for a reserved case.

DEATH OF REV. T. G. SMITH.

Kingsford, Nov. 28.—Rev. T. G. Smith, D. D., general secretary of the Queen's Theological Hall, and brother-in-law Hon. W. S. Fielding, died today after a brief attack of heart trouble.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

Salmon Falls, Nov. 28.—John Stockdale, aged 50 years, was run over by a freight train on the western division of the Boston & Maine R. R. here this evening.

A NEW STEAMER BEGUN.

Boston, Nov. 28.—The keel of the new steamer for the Boston and Bangor line, to be christened the City of Rockland, has been laid at McKim's yard in East Boston.

EXTEND A HEARTY WELCOME TO FINANCIAL MINISTER FIELDING.

A Brilliant Banquet in New Glasgow—Speeches by Mr. Fielding, St. Louis Davies, Hon. Mr. Blair and Others—An Address Presented by Mr. Fielding.

THE MAXWELL CASE.

The Attorney General Will Turn It Over to the Courts—Extradition Will Be Requested.

It is just a question whether or not the preliminary examination of Elmer Maxwell by the murder of Captain George Baisley, will go on or not.

STILL ANOTHER ROBBERY.

There is as yet no clue to the robberies committed in Trinity church, Mr. Edward McCreary's, Main street, or Mr. McDonald's residence on Douglas avenue, and another robbery occurred yesterday afternoon.

THE HORRIBLE VOYAGE.

Manila, Nov. 28. (8.15 p. m.)—When the transport "Manau-ense" anchored in San Francisco, there was several feet of water in her hold and 400 grimy, greasy, had been passing buckets of water since Nov. 17, night and day.

ST. JOSEPH COLLEGE NEWS.

St. Joseph's College, Nov. 25.—The philosophy or graduating class, comes from various parts of the continent.

THE TERRIBLE TURK.

Boston, Nov. 28.—The Thanksgiving poultry trade was given a shaking up today by the condemnation by health officers of large consignments of western fowl.

THE CONVICTED BANK PRESIDENT.

Montreal, Nov. 28.—In the case of the president, William Wier, yesterday convicted of furnishing false statements of the bank's position to the government, his counsel, MacMaster, today made a motion for a reserved case.

DEATH OF REV. T. G. SMITH.

Kingsford, Nov. 28.—Rev. T. G. Smith, D. D., general secretary of the Queen's Theological Hall, and brother-in-law Hon. W. S. Fielding, died today after a brief attack of heart trouble.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

Salmon Falls, Nov. 28.—John Stockdale, aged 50 years, was run over by a freight train on the western division of the Boston & Maine R. R. here this evening.

A NEW STEAMER BEGUN.

Boston, Nov. 28.—The keel of the new steamer for the Boston and Bangor line, to be christened the City of Rockland, has been laid at McKim's yard in East Boston.