Ottawa, May 28.-Wallace Nesbitt K.C., Toronto, who was a member of the conciliation board which has just successfully settled the labor dispute between the Grand Trunk Railway comcity, attending the supreme court.

Asked as to his opinion of the Lanieux Act, by which the Labor Disputes Act is now generally known, he spoke ery favorably after having seen it operation.
"I think the act," said Mr. Nesbitt.

cannot be too highly commended. It s, of course, an experiment, so fas as this continent is concerned - quite inique in its character. I know it is being watched with the very greatest interest by the prominent leaders of industry in the United States. Had such an act been in force in the United States in the recent difference in Chicago, where some 45,000 men were under difficulties, restrained from going out, and while, after much trouble, a dispute was avoided, such an act which required the parties to get together before the severe measures of a strike or lockout was declared, would viewed as a great blessing."

What about the machinists' strike?" "In regard to the machinists, they some of the rules which prevailed for a great many years onerous. When the parties came to-gether there was a full and frank dis-cussion from both points of view, the men nointing out how they operated hardly upon them, and the company showing in turn how an amendment of the rules such as suggested would dis turb many other matters in the organization of the railways business which would create the greatest confusion. The best evidence to my mind of the efficacy of the ac twas that, after the discussion, the men were apparently well satisfied with the explanations given, and I have no doubt whatever that many of the difficulties as to the rules relating to the employes disappeared when it was seen what was in the employer's mind and what they were seeking to overcome in the management of the business. Under such circumstances the men were willing to accept them even if they did think to begin with that they bore hardly upon

"In regard to wages, the men showed themselves most reasonable, after the various matters which affected the nuestion were made plain to them. There is always the first thing to be admitted, and that is that a man is entitled to a living wage, and that after this there is the reasonable considera-tion that an employer can afford to pay when all the circumstances affect his business have been reviewed. experience has been that the men are not unreasonable when they find than their employer cannot pay more than he is doing, even if a me nate man in the same business does give a higher wage."

"So that your experience in this case has caused you to form a good impres-

"I think that the act is a very great step forward in the settlement of the vexed question of industrial disputes. If acted upon, in my judgment, it will nearly every case stop either a strike It is a trite saying that there are two sides to a story, cople are interested in knowing when of quarrel springs up as to what the other side has to say. The act accombishes this by bringing the parties together and an adjustment then becomes easy. Popular opinion will do the rest. much blame connot be put on the shoulders of an employer or employe who, without coming under the act, shes into a strike or lockout, causing inconvenience and hardship to the community and a loss to the labor pursuits industrial interests of the

"There is a question that is worth nsidering, and that is if the m the board should be confined to British subjects. In the case of the selection of a third party, it might be desirable to go outside. A reason for this would be to get away from the local atosphere. It is sometimes difficult to get three good men, thoroughly familiar with the subject under dispute, who are not in some way connected with the matter. But this is only a mere sugrestion on my part."

"Anything else you would suggest?" "Yes, if an employer brings about a lockout by saying that he simply found it necessary to shut down his shop for repairs, or the men saying they are simply taking a holiday, then the act should say in any dispute arising sho ing that the employer locks out and the men quit work it should be deemed under the act to be a strike or lockout, as the case may be. The onus should be cast upon the employer or employe to show that it was not in fact under the circumstances re L'y a lockout or

The opinion of Mr. Nesbitt, who not ery long ago was offered and accepted of Canada for the sole reason of adding strength to the court of last resort in the dominion, is extremely valuable, and will be so regarded by all paries. That Mr. Nesbitt added dignity, lustre and legal acumen to the bench everyone agrees, but he cast aside the ermine as easily as he put it on for the very much more lucrative practice of his profession. The minister of labor, Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, is therefore to be congratu-lated in having the endorsement and approval of so high a legal authority for the Labor Disputes Bill, after having had the experience as a member of a conciliation board in seeing it in operation in the successful settlement a long standing labor disagreement.
