

Something Wrong With the Shabby.

There is a prominent doctor in Germantown who is busy telling a little joke on himself, says the Philadelphia "Evening Telegraph." It appears that he employed an Irish servant who had just arrived from the "old sod." Starting out one morning he noticed his office windows were rather dirty, and calling Bridget, he instructed her to clean them before he returned. At the same time he told her that he would stop and purchase a new chamomile skin and send it home, and with this she was to clean the windows. After he had gone his return he found them thickly streaked with grease. He called Bridget, and the following colloquy took place: "Bridget, didn't I tell you to clean the windows?" "Yes, sir."

Why can't we come over to your house and play any more? Because papa gets so mad when we make a little bit of noise. What makes him that way? Mamma says it's dyspepsia makes him act so crazy. That's about the way it strikes the small boy. The dyspeptic has no idea of his own unreasonableness or harshness. Little things are magnified and seem to justify his quick anger. There's health for the dyspeptic and happiness for the family by the use of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and restores perfect health and strength, by enabling the perfect digestion and assimilation of food.

"SPORTING LIFE"

"Sporting Life" is the significant title of a pretentious English melodrama to be produced at the Grand next Saturday night. The piece enjoyed a prosperous run of six months in New York at the Academy of Music, and a record-breaking engagement of five months at McVicar's Theatre, Chicago, and comes here heralded as one of the most realistic productions of patrons of the many art, all in evening dress; and lastly, a splendid view of the Epsom Downs race course on Derby Day. There are numerous other scenes of lesser magnitude, but all admirably designed and executed. In preparing this production, the management found it necessary to make requisition on the leading studios of New York, entailing a great outlay, but securing the benefit of the artistic genius of those distinguished masters: Joseph Physic, Ernest Albert, Homer Emens and John Young. To crowd so much diversity of scenery into four acts necessitates some of the most rapid changes of scene ever witnessed, and the amazing celerity with which these changes are made is one of the features of the production. There is no delay in the action of the piece, and the lightning-like transportation of the spectator from one picture to another is said to be startling.

Another Stride.

The publishers of the "Padditt Magazine" announce with some pride that they will shortly inaugurate a strikingly new movement in literature. Instead of having the authors prepare the stories which are inserted in the center of the magazine these worthy individuals will be compelled to write the advertisements, while the ad-writers will be given full way in the pages devoted to real romance. We are permitted to copy the following display-lines from the advance sheets of the advertising pages: "Prisoners of Soap! The Adventures of Latherus and Grit. A clean, helpful story." "The Scalped Matress; or, How it Felt to have the Hair Removed. By old Nick Carter." "Sherlock Homes and Happy Homes in the Laymout Subdivision. By Donnan Coyle." "The Light That Failed. It Was Not the Smellsback Light. By Kiddy Rupp." "Striking Testimonials to the Efficacy of Dr. Healen's Heart Cure. By the author of the 'Letters of Elizabeth.'" Etc., etc., etc.—"Judge."

Had to Give up and go to Bed.

Several Doctors Attended But Did No Good.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills CURED.

Read what Miss L. L. Hanson, Water-side, N.B., says: "I feel it my duty to express the benefit I have received from Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. A year ago last spring I began to have heart failure. At first I would have to stop working and lie down for a while. Then I got so bad I had to give up altogether and go to bed. I had several doctors attend me but they did me no good. I could get no relief until urged by a friend to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. Before I had used three quarters of a box I began to feel the benefit and by the time I had taken three boxes I was completely cured. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure nervousness, sleeplessness, palpitation of the heart, skip beats, and all troubles arising from the heart or nerves. Price 50 cts. box, or 3 for $1.25, all dealers, or THE T. MILBURN CO., Limited, TORONTO, ONT.

Miss Alice Bailey, of Atlanta, Ga., tells how she was permanently cured of inflammation of the ovaries, and escaped the surgeon's knife, by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The universal indications of the approach of woman's great enemy, inflammation and disease of the ovaries, are a dull throbbing pain, accompanied by a sense of tenderness and heat low down in the side, with occasional shooting pains. On examination it may be found that the region of pain will show some swelling. This is the first stage of inflammation of the ovaries. "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to express my gratitude for the restored health and happiness Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought into my life. "I had suffered for three years with terrible pains at the time of menstruation, and did not know what the trouble was until the doctor pronounced it inflammation of the ovaries, and proposed an operation. "I felt so weak and sick that I felt sure that I could not survive the ordeal, and so I told him that I would not undergo it. The following week I read an advertisement in the paper of your Vegetable Compound in such an emergency, and so I decided to try it. Great was my joy to find that I actually improved after taking two bottles, so I kept taking it for ten weeks, and at the end of that time I was cured. I had gained eighteen pounds and was in excellent health, and am now. "You surely deserve great success, and you have my very best wishes."—MISS ALICE BAILEY, 50 North Boulevard, Atlanta, Ga.

Another woman saved from a surgical operation by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Read what she says:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I cannot thank you enough for what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. If it had not been for your medicine, I think I would have died. "I will tell you how I suffered. I could hardly walk, was unable to sleep or eat. Menstruation was irregular. At last I had to stay in my bed, and flowed so badly that they sent for a doctor, who said I had inflammation of the ovaries, and had to go through an operation, as no medicine could help me, but I could not do that. "I received a little book of yours, and after reading it, I concluded to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am now a well woman. I shall praise your medicine as long as I live, and also recommend the same to anyone suffering as I was."—MRS. MINNIE OTTOSON, Otho, Iowa.

All sick women would be wise if they would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and be well.
