

being reserved for the lively hymns and choruses. A passage from Scripture is read at an early stage in the proceedings, which is followed by a very few appropriate remarks, and then come some of the more joyous songs and choruses, such as,—

“ Oh, I'm the child of a King, I am,—
I am the child of a King ;
Oh, it is, it is a glorious thing
To be the child of a King ! ”

or this,—

“ Follow ! Follow ! I will follow Jesus,—
Follow ! Follow ! I will follow on ;
Follow ! Follow ! yes, I'll follow Jesus,— Anywhere He leads me, I will follow on ! ”

These, sung rapidly, with the lively tambourine accompaniment, and sometimes clapping of hands, have an indescribably stimulating and touching influence. Another very sweet and more solemn chorus is this :—

“ It's the Old Time religion,
It's the Old Time religion,
It's the Old Time religion,
And it's good enough for me ! ”

While a standing favourite, often repeated many times in succession with impromptu variations, has the answering refrains :—

“ Oh, what will you do, brother, when He comes,—
When He comes ? ”

and

“ Oh, the Army will be ready when He comes,—
When He comes ! ”
