

affairs to the Warden, and through him to the other executive officers: and that the said responsibility of the said Inspectors may not be lessened by the incapacity, or inefficiency, or negligence of those who are to carry out their views—in the event of the existence of such detrimental incapacity, inefficiency or negligence, on the part of any officer not by this Act made removable by the said Inspectors, they are hereby empowered, and it shall be their duty to represent to the Governor in Council without delay, that such is the case and what is the nature of their complaint against such officer, and what is the injurious effect produced upon the Institution, and to recommend if they see fit the removal of such officer.

X. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said Inspector :— Further duties of Inspectors.

1st. To make, and amend from time to time, all necessary rules and regulations respecting the conduct, management, discipline and police of the said Penitentiary, consistent with this Act and the Laws of this Province; which said rules and regulations, the officers of the said Penitentiary and all others employed therein, shall be bound to obey.

2nd. To consider and determine the branches of employment to be prosecuted in the Penitentiary, and the manner in which the same shall be prosecuted: whether by hiring out the labour of the convicts to contractors, or by executing orders for articles under contract, as shall be found most conducive to promote the objects of the Institution and the public interest.

3rd. To consider and determine the terms on which agreements shall be entered into by the Warden of the said Penitentiary, with parties contracting for the labour of the convicts or the proceeds of their labour, and also with parties contracting to supply articles for the use of the Penitentiary.

4th. To consider and determine the system of secular education and the extent and character of the moral and religious training and instruction to be afforded the convicts in the said Penitentiary.

5th. To consider and determine what acts on the part of the convicts, shall be held as punishable offences, and the several punishments to be awarded by the Warden for such offences.

6th. To consider and determine the number of Overseers, Keepers and Guards to be employed in the Penitentiary, and the routine of their several duties, the hours of