over the Railroad.

Fence to bridge.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the said Company shall, at each and every place where the said Railroad shall cross any highway on a level, erect and keep up a sign-board stretching across the highway at such height as to leave sixteen feet from the highway to the lower edge of the sign-board, and having the words "RAILROAD CROSSING" painted on each side of such sign-board, and in letters not less than six inches in length; and for each and every neglect to comply with the requirements of this section the said Company shall incur a penalty not exceeding Precautions to be observed when the Railroad crosses a highway on a level.

£5.

IX. And be it enacted, That the said Company, in making the said intended Railroad, shall not deviate more than a mile from the line of the Railroad or from the places assigned to the several works of the Company in the map or plan and book of reference deposited aforesaid, nor cut, carry, place, lay down or convey the said Railroad into, through, across, under or over any part of any lands or grounds not shown and mentioned in such map or plan and book of reference as being required for such purpose, or as being within one mile of the said line and of the places assigned therein to the said works respectively, (save in such instances as are herein specially provided for), without the consent of the party or parties who could under the provisions of this Act convey such lands.

Company not to deviate more than one mile from the line to be shewn in the map aforesaid.

Except by consent of parties.

X. And be it enacted, That the said Company may make, carry or place their said intended Railroad and works into, across or upon the lands of any person or party whomsoever on the line aforesaid, or within the distance aforesaid from such line, although the name of such party be not entered in the said book of reference, through error, want of sufficient information, or any other cause, or although some other person or party be erroneously mentioned as the owner of or party entitled to convey, or interested in such lands.

Errors in the book of reference not to prevent the making of the Road, on the line shewn or within the limits of deviation.

XI. And be it enacted, That the lands or grounds to be taken or used for such intended Railroad, and the ditches, drains and fences to separate the same from the adjoining lands, shall not exceed thirty yards in breadth except in such places where the said intended Railroad shall be raised more than five feet higher, or cut more Lands taken for Railroad not to exceed 30 yards in breadth.

Exceptions for off-sets passing places, &c.
