

tle

regained line in a
seconds

gs based ing posi-
NB took
th Slipp
ng third,
h, Dick Cordner

al Early
h of the
ey factor tted that the per-

victory
fifth and enth led nd place
dings.

Al Yarr,
um, com-
country
ort" and best run-
the team

e champ-
rial Uni-
ville fin-
l.

iversity of
's 22nd.,
ormick's
th Bernie

)
(7)
(3:23)
(3:39)
(3:42)
(43)
(4:09)
(X: (24:27)
(39)
(4:42)

ts!

.
e is ne
count.

The University of New Brunswick Resident Musicians practicing in front of the covered bridge in Keswick. The story on moving the grand piano from Fredericton to this quiet road in Keswick will be featured in a following issue of the Inside. The Musicians are, from left to right; Joseph Pach, first violin; Andrew Benac, second violin; Arlene Nimmons Pach, piano; James Pataki, viola; and Ifan Williams, cello. The Resident Musicians give their first concert of this academic year on Sunday, October 31, in Mem Hall at 8:15.

THE INSIDE OCTOBER 29