I feel sure I could arrange for a unanimous convention in his favor. otherwise, I am afraid, there would be almost insurmountable difficulties.

Mr Sutton LeBouthillier would undoubtedly prove the best man, but it will be quite a task to get him to accept.
I had intended going to Gaspé Basin, this week, to see him. but I will put it off until I hear further from you.

Yours faithfully
D. L. B. Evans
