Ottawa, 29th February, 1908.

Sir,-

With reference to your letter of the 22nd instant regarding the account from S.P. Vigneault for a stove, etc. furnished for the lock-up at Caughnawaga, and also his account for coal, I beg to say that the accounts in question have not been received by the Department. In this connection I have to refer you to official letter of the 8th August in the matter.

Your obedient servant,

Secretary.
