

dereliction of duty in allowing arrears of rent to accumulate in this way. The tenant must surely be possessed of sufficient property to rely on for the recovery of the arrears; and under the lease the rents must be paid within at least 40 days of the time they fall due. The Indian locatee complains that he has received no money whatever.

You will be good enough to report on this matter without delay.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant

H. A. H. H. H.
 Deputy, Sect. General
 of Indian Affairs.
