

Examined.

Sgt Robinson took him to custody. He was not placed in my custody. He struck me with his knee but not with his fist. It was more a case of violently resisting than striking. He never physically threatened me.

By the Court,

I was with Sgt. Robinson when he put the accused under arrest. Sgt. Robinson didn't tell me he was putting him in my custody. I assisted Sgt. Robinson in taking the ~~man~~ accused away in custody. I saw an officer or a private beside the vehicle. The officer came over to us while we were talking to the accused.

On Fri. 29 Sept I was in Kent, crossing an open area, when I was almost run down by a vehicle. It was coming very fast & I had to run to keep from being hit. It was making a U-turn & I got half way thru the U-turn. The accused was driving the vehicle. I went over to him & asked him what was wrong. He said the clutch was burned out but I found it was as
