

Our Church's success cannot be computed in financial terms alone. To the cause of justice in the earth we gave twenty-eight of our sons, twelve of whom paid the supreme measure of sacrifice. A suitable memorial tablet in our Church pays silent tribute to these brave lads who sleep afar. The Sunday School cherishes the memory of seven of her members who gave their lives in freedom's cause. Their names are inscribed in bronze maple leaves set in a shield in the Sunday School room.

"They being dead yet speak."

The Church is justly proud of the sons whom she gave to the Christian Ministry: Rev. John Roland Bick, B.A., of Wooler, Ont., grandson of the first Recording Steward, the late Geo. Bick, also Rev. W. J. D. Huston, L. Hopkins and John Green.

* * *

The Choir

Any account of Bobcaygeon Methodism would be incomplete without mention of the choir. In the early history of the Church Mrs. R. Wright and those associated with her rendered excellent service.

Later the Cosh family, who were all gifted with musical talent, gave unstintedly to the service of song.

In the more modern days the choir has sustained its early reputation. The labors of all are appreciated, but special mention should be made of Miss Sarah Wright for her years of devoted service.

The personnel of the choir at present is:

Organist—Mrs. Howard Malcolm.

Sopranos—Miss Sarah Wright, Mrs. Geo. Turner, Mrs. Irwin, Mrs. R. Junkin, Mrs. W. Provost.

Altos—Mrs. R. Kelsey, Mrs. J. M. Whyte.

Bass—Thos. Cosh, Isaac Lewis (Leader)

Tenors—Spurgeon Cosh, Clayton Taylor (Leader).

A noble history such as ours is an incentive to diligence. God was with our fathers and blessed them. With John Wesley we can say "The best of all is God is with us." With His companionship we face bravely the larger tasks that lie before us.