

6. Subject to the conditions specified in the regulations, a provincial authority is entitled, for the purpose of ascertaining the age of a recipient, to obtain from the Dominion Bureau of Statistics any information respecting the age of a recipient that is contained in the returns of any census taken more than thirty years before the date of the application for such information. Census records.

7. In every agreement the province shall, subject to section three, Provisions of agreement.

(a) specify the maximum allowance to be paid by it to a recipient;

(b) provide for the reduction of such maximum allowance by the amount of any income received by a recipient in excess of an amount to be specified in such agreement; and

(c) covenant and agree

(i) that the provincial authority will consider applications from persons resident in the province in the manner prescribed by regulation, and where satisfied that a recipient is properly and lawfully entitled to the allowance, under the conditions specified in this Act, the regulations and the agreement, grant the allowance to such recipient in the amount specified in the agreement;

(ii) that where a recipient, during the last ten hundred and ninety-five days that he was present in Canada prior to reaching the age of twenty-one years, or prior to making application for the allowance, whichever is the later, was present in the province for a greater number of days than in any other province, the province will reimburse any other province that is paying the allowance to the extent of twenty-five per cent. of the amount of the allowance;

(iii) that the province will, where a recipient who has been granted an allowance transfers his residence to such province from another province, pay the allowance;

(iv) that where a recipient, to whom the province has granted an allowance, transfers his residence to another province with which no agreement is in force, the province will continue to pay the allowance to such recipient;

(v) that where a recipient, who has been granted an allowance, transfers his residence to some place out of Canada, the province will discontinue payment of the allowance and not resume payment thereof until such recipient has again become resident in Canada;

(vi) to make statutory provision for penalties to ensure the proper carrying out of the provincial law and to provide that no allowance shall be subject to alienation or transfer by a recipient or to attachment or seizure in satisfaction of any claim against him, and that the receipt of the allowance shall not by itself constitute a disqualification from voting at any provincial or municipal election;
