HOMeward BOUND.

BY ROBERT BROWN.

I'm homeward bound across the sea,
And angry billows threaten me;
Help me, O Father, to depend
On thy protection to the end.

When'er the clouds of life hang low,
And tears like rain do freely flow,
Help me remember day by day
Thy hand will wipe all tears away.

When darkness falls across the wave,
And angry breakers shriek and rave,
Give me to know no harm can come
To those whom thou art guiding home.

Though all the voyage stormy be,
Oh, may thy presence strengthen me,
And faith still hold thy way the best
Till evening brings the harbor's rest.
