GIVEN JUDGMENT WITH COSTS

Hinman Milking Machine Company of Onelda Awarded Damages in U. S. District Court Against the Visible Milker Company for Infringement —Watertown Concern Restrained— Judge Ray's Decision.

The following is from the Oneida, Y., Despatch:

Judge George W. Ray of the United States District Court just handed down a decision in the action brought down a decision in the action brought by the Himman Milking Machine company, of Oneida, against the Visible Milker company, of Watertown, for in-fringement of patent, in which the court directs an injunction and judgment against the Watertown concerning. with full costs and an accounting to fix damages.

the Hinman Milking Machine com-pany, whose machines, which have gained a world-wide reputation, have been imitated and infringed in var-ious parts of the country because of their sound basic principles and wonderful success,

The action was brought by the Hin-man Milking Machine company to re-strain the Watertown company from committing further infringement on the complainant's (Himman's) patent and for damages for the infringe-ments already committed. This case was tried in United States District was tried in United States District Court at Syracuse, Aug. 31st and Sept. 1st and 2nd, 1915. Attorney Rabph H. Woolver of this city appear-ed for the Himman Milking Machine company with Attorneys H. P. Denni-son and E. A. Thompson as counsel. The Virbies Milker company was re-tricted by Attorneys John Cobbos, of Waterfor Attorneys John Cobbos, of Waterform, and Fred Gerlach, of

What the Decision Means.

What the because means.

This decision gives the Hinman Milking Machine company a practical monopoly on the manufacture and sale of the valve-type milking machine industry, and it was in anticipation of a favorable decision that the commany recently enderged, its the company recently enlarged its plant on Elizabeth street to about plant on Finance street to about double its former capacity. Their pro-duct is sold in every state in the Un-tion, in Canada, Mexico, South America and a number of European countries, and orders from new territory are received almost every day.
