Boston, May 25. A report has reached Boston that a sanguinary battle is going on at Harper's Ferry. Sixteen thousand Union troops are now engaged in for-tifying the lines from Alexandria ito Arlington heights. Troops will soon advance on Culpep-per, 70 miles from Washington, where a large body of rebels has been concentrating for some weeks. It is rumoured that one 'of the United States steamers has destroyed the rebel battery at Acquia creek, and occupied its position. The report is current at Washington that five thou-sand Union troops have been attacked by an overwhelming rebel force, and driven back to Washington. A battle has been commenced and is now going on in Virginia. Six addition-al regiments have been immediately ordered for-ward by Gen. Scott. ward by Gen. Scott.
