

When the Stomach Stops

Working Properly Because There is Wind in It, Use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets to Set It Going Again.

A Trial Package Free.

The doctors call it flatulency, but unprofessional folks know it as "wind on the stomach," and a most distressing state of things it is. It is a serious condition of this great motor organ. Always annoying and painful in the extreme, at times often leading to bad and fatal results. The stomach embarrassed and hampered with wind, cannot take care of its food properly and indigestion follows, and this has a train too appalling to enumerate. The entire system is implicated—made an active or passive factor in this trouble and life soon becomes a questionable boon.

All this is explained in doctor books; how undigested food causes gases by fermentation and fomentation in which process some essential fluids are destroyed—burnt up—wasted by chemical action, followed by defective nutrition and the distribution through the alimentary tract of chemically wrong elements and as a consequence the stomach and entire system is starved. Plenty of food, you see, but spoilt in preparation and worse than worthless.

A deranged stomach is the epitome of evil; nothing too bad to emanate from it, but the gas it generates is probably its worst primary effect and the only way to do away with this is to remove the cause. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets go to the root of this trouble. They attack the gas-making foods and render them harmless. Flatulency or wind on the stomach simply cannot exist where these powerful and wonderworking little tablets are in evidence.

They were made for this very purpose to attack gas making foods and convert them into proper nutriment. This is their province and office. A whole book could be written about them and then not all told that might be told with profit to sufferers from this painful disease, dyspepsia. It would mention the years of patient and expensive experiment in effort to arrive at this result—of failures innumerable and at last success. It would make mention of the different stomach correctives that enter into this tablet and make it faithfully represent all.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are not alone intended for the sick, but well folks as well; for the person who craves hearty foods and wants to eat heartily and run no risk of bad effects, they act like a charm and make eating and digestion a delight and pleasure. They keep the stomach active and energetic and able and willing to do extra work without special labour or effort. Don't forget this.

Well people are often neglected, but the Stuart Dyspepsia Tablets have them in mind.

A free trial package will be sent any one who wants to know just what they are, how they look and taste, before beginning treatment with them. THIS IS HOW THEY RISE.

A young woman recently found employment in a queensware store. She immediately began a course of study in her leisure moments upon glassware and china. She then read some recent works upon the appointments of the table, and in a short time, by applying herself to her business, became the most valued employee in a large store.

In the millinery establishment the young woman who found time for reading a book or two on colours and their harmonious combination found her own taste greatly improved, and her ability to please patrons greater. She was soon a favourite with employers and customers.

The young woman, who, to earn an honourable living, went into a lady's kitchen, and, instead of gossiping every evening, found time to read a few good books and household papers, was soon too valuable a housekeeper to be kept in a subordinate position in the kitchen. She knew how a table should look for a formal dinner; she knew what dishes were in season; she knew how to serve a meal in its proper courses; and more than that, she knew something about the food value of different dishes.

A fair average of good sense and proper amount of application will accomplish everything.—Womankind.

FATHER'S RETURN.

Little Ruth and Lettie Carl lived with their mother, in a tiny cottage by the seashore. Ever since they were babies, they had known and loved the great old ocean. Day after day they would play along the shore, gathering up the shiny pebbles, shells, and the seaweed that the waves washed in, and at night they would lie and listen to the ocean's roaring, until they would drop off to sleep. When Ruth was a very little tot and Lettie a wee baby, father had gone away. Ruth could just remember how bitterly mother cried, and how sad things had seemed. Since that time father had never come home, and when the children would ask where he was, their mother would look so sorrowful, and say, "Let us hope safely, my treasures." And then she would kiss them so tenderly. One night the wind blew frightfully, the rain came down in torrents, and the great ocean seemed to be roaring as it never had before. Ruth saw mother kneel down by the bed, and she knew mother was praying for dear father, so she knelt down and prayed to God to bring him home safely. Soon the children went to bed, and in spite of the storm their little eyes soon closed. Ruth was suddenly awakened by soft kisses on her forehead, and opening her eyes she saw somebody she knew was father. Yes, it was he, and how happy they all were, and Ruth whispered to mother that she thought God brought him home because they prayed.

Cured Many Cases of 30 and 40 Years' Standing.

On the theory "that seeing is believing," John A. Smith, of Milwaukee, wants everyone to try his remedy for the cure of rheumatism at his expense. For that reason he proposes to distribute 50,000 free boxes among all persons sending him their address. Mr. Smith has suffered all the agony and torture from rheumatism, tried all the remedies known and yet utterly failed to find relief.

At times he was so helpless that he had to take morphine, and after considerable doctoring he gave up in despair. He began studying into the causes of rheumatism and after much experimenting, finally found a combination of drugs which completely cured him. The result was so beneficial to his entire system that he called his new found remedy "Gloria Tonic." Those of his friends, relatives and neighbors suffering from rheumatism were next cured and Mr. Smith concluded to offer his remedy to the world. But he found the task a difficult one as nearly everybody had tried a hundred or more remedies and they couldn't be made to believe that there was such a thing as a cure for rheumatism. But an old gentleman from Seguin, Texas, wrote him saying, if Mr. Smith would send him a sample he would try it, but as he had suffered over thirty years and wasted a fortune with doctors and advertized remedies, he wouldn't buy anything more until he knew it was worth something. The sample was sent, he purchased more, and the result was astonishing. He was completely cured. This gave Mr. Smith a new idea and ever since that time he has been sending out free sample boxes to all who apply. At National Military Home, Kansas, it cured a veteran of rheumatism in hips and knees. In Hannaford, North Dakota, it cured a gentleman who writes: "Since taking 'Gloria Tonic' I am as supple as a boy." In Stayner, Ont., it enabled a lady to discard her crutches. In Westerly, R. I. R. R. No. 1, it cured a farmer 72 years old. In Fountain City, Wis., it cured an old gentleman after suffering 33 years. In Molalla, Oregon, it cured a lady 73 years of age who had suffered for thirty years. In Sumner, Iowa, it cured a lady after suffering thirty-four years. In Elm Grove, Wis., "Gloria Tonic" cured a severe case of Sciatica. Even prominent physicians had to admit that "Gloria Tonic" is a positive success, among them Doctor Quintero of the University of Venezuela, to whom it was recommended by the United States Consul. In hundreds of other instances the result has been the same. It cured many cases which defied Hospitals, Drugs and Electricity, among them persons of upwards of eighty years of age.

Mr. Smith will send a trial box, also his illustrated book on rheumatism, absolutely free of charge to any reader of the "Canadian Churchman," for he is anxious that everybody should profit by his good fortune. Mr. Smith's address in full is:—

Trust.—Life would be impracticable unless it were the primary rule to believe what is told us. There is not a single relation in adult life in which we are not compelled to depend upon the word of another—of a husband, a wife, a friend, an agent. We believe certain things representing them—in their honour, their chastity, their affection, their faithfulness. To what kind of condition would life be reduced if we apply to these matters "the universal duty of questioning all that we believe?"
