RUBE DENEAU HAS WON HIS LAST GAME HERE

Foran's Timely Homer Was Cause of Desired Result—Brants' Luck Has Turned.

Judging from yesterday's game with the Saints, it looks very much as if the Brants' luck had reached the turning point. They have had their streak of bad luck, but if the new manager Slab Warner makes good, fortune might favor them in the future. This is still only the first part of the season and they are 44 more games to be played at home and 45 abroad, making a total of 89 games. Being in the cellar, there is a possibility of the team going up, whereas, if it were on top, its descent would be almost inevitable. Many fans are sorry to see "Rube" go, as he was very popular in the city, but it is best that he should go. He has put his best into the work while here, but it is now evident that Deneau, in the capacity of manager, has seen his best days. If he hasn't been able to make good this year in managers uniform, he undoubtedly will in that of umpire, which he dons for the first time to-day at Hamilton. He knows the game A. to Z. and is well known in the six Canadian clubs. Here's the best of luck Rube. In the game yesterday, he showed that he still possessed some of his old cunning, and proved to fandom that he wasn't an absolute failure by winning his last game. But it is unfair to give Deneau all the credit for the much needed victory. Pitcher Warner, or to give him his right title, manager Warner held down the heavy artillery of the Saints to seven hits, only one of which, being a double at that. He allowed only two men to walk and struck out eight. He helped four assists. In one instance though, his fielding could have been better. "Slab" is well versed in the game and has considerable experience as manager in his home town, of Cadillac, Michigan. Last years record of the Cadillac club in the Michigan State League shows that Warner ushered his team to third position, with 67 games won and 51 lost. His individual batting percentage was .325, and in the pitchers records he stood fifth, with a first class record. It is to be hoped that he will keep up his good generalship in the future in this league.

But, returning to the game, it was really Foran who was responsible for the victory. His timely smash in the sixth drove the pill over the fence with the result of two more runs for the Brants, for he forced in Burrill, who had made a single. Foran has indeed proved himself to be right there with the goods, several times and is "worth his salt." Fried and "Dad" Stewart must not be forgotten, for they both made the second sack with their drives. It was this wallop of "Dad's" which gave the Saints their one and only run. Otherwise they would have been miserably shut out. He made it the first time up and the first ball pitched and it was no doubt this smash that steadied Warner for the rest of the game. Fried's double occurred in the second and, unfortunately, was of no use, as there were two out when he went to bat. The game by innings is as follows: The Brants won the toss up, and sent the Saints in to bat first. Kopp was allowed to walk, Stewart smashed out a safe double, forcing Kopp, to score. Hadley flew out to Fried, who easily fielded the ball assisting Ivers in his put out. Ort walked and Todd was struck out. Inker was put out. Warner to Ivers. Score was 1 run, 1 hit, no errors and two left on bases. In the Brants first innings, nothing was done. Both Dunn and Dunlop hit rollers out to Hughey, who ate them up. Burrill was given his base on balls, but was put out on second by Todd, being forced out by Ivers. Innings ended no runs, no hits, no errors and one left on.

Forgue was first up in the Saints second. He sent a roller to Mullen, out to first. Harris out, pitcher to first and Hughey also out, third to first. Score—One run, one hit. In the Brants second, Mullen and Foran were both put out, pitcher to first. Ivers flew out to centre for a double and Hadley fanned. Score now, no runs, one hit. The Saints accomplished nothing in their third. Kopp flew out to centre, but Burrill ate it up. Stewart was hit by a pitched ball and was given his base. Lamond fanned. Score, Ivers, as did Ort, Fried to first. Score, one run, one hit, no errors and one left on.

Warner opened the third with a struck out. Dunn followed with a single, but the innings closed when Dunlop and Burrill were both put out, Hughey to Ort. Score now, no runs, two hits, no errors. St. Thomas made another run in the fourth. Todd made an easy foul which Matty caught, then Inker made the hit, flying out to Burrill. He just made first but stole second, when Forgue went to bat. Forgue fanned and Harris sent a roller to short, out Dunlop to Ivers. Score, one run, two hits. The fourth for Brantford was opened by Ivers, who walked. He attempted to make second, but his sore ankle wouldn't give him enough speed so he was put out, pitcher to Todd. Mullen was responsible for this force out. He stole second on Foran's fly to centre garden. Foran out to Stewart. "Rabbit" Fried walked and Lamond was struck out. Score still no runs, two hits.

The fifth for St. Thomas was no better than the fourth. Hughey struck out, Kopp flew out to centre, making a single. Stewart fanned, and Kopp stole to second. Hadley flew out to Dunn. Score, one run, three hits. Warner again opened in Brantford's fifth, making a safe single out to right field. Dunn struck out. Dunlop forced Warner out, Hadley to Todd, and was himself put out in attempting to steal second. Score, no runs, three hits. The sixth innings was the poorest of the game for the Saints. Ort fanned, Todd out to Ivers and Inker put, Warner to Ivers. Score, one run, three hits. The sixth was the lucky one for the Brants. Burrill, through his fastness, made first. Ivers flew out to left and was caught out, and Mullen struck out. Then Foran got busy, slammed the old pill right over the centre field fence, driving in Burrill and scoring himself. Score, two runs, five hits, no errors.

Forgue made a single in the seventh. Harris was struck out and Hughey was put out, pitcher to first. Kopp was also put out, short to first. Score, one run, four hits, one error, and one left on base. In the Brants seventh, the third run was chalked up to their credit. Lammond and Warner both out, pitcher to first. Dunn flew out to near left and made first in safety. Dunlop smashed one out to the same place, also making first, while Dunn scored, through an error on the part of Todd, Dunlop stole second when Burrill went to bat. Burrill, out, Hughey to Ort. Score, three runs, seven hits, no errors. In the Saints eighth, Stewart flew out to centre and made first. Hadley fanned and on Ort's force out. Stewart was put out, Dunlop to Fried. Todd flew out to left and was put out by the brilliant catch which Dunn pulled off. Score, one run, five hits, one error. The Brants eighth and last was a poor one, Ivers was put out, Todd to Ort. Mullen, Forgue to first and Foran walked. On Fried's force out, Foran was touched out on second by Todd to Forgue. Score, three runs, seven hits and no errors. The Saints failed to score in their last inning. Inker went out to first, Mullen to Ivers, Forgue flew out to centre, out to Burrill. Harris and Hughey both made singles and the game closed when Kopp struck out. Score, one run, seven hits and one error. The score is:

Boston, June 11.—Boston bested Detroit 6 to 5 yesterday in a game which called out nearly every element of reserve strength in each team. Hits came frequently from the bats of the Tigers and Red Sox and the pitchers changed often as the result. Hoblitzel was ordered from the field in the 7th for disputing a decision by Umpire Evans by which Leonard was charged with a balk. Scott, Boston's shortstop, who had fielded without an error in more than a month, sprained an ankle in practice yesterday. Score: R.H.E. Boston ..... 100010000—5 9 1
