No Comments.

By Special Wire to the Courier. Berlin, Dec. 16.—The transcript of Austro-Hungarian reply to the note from the United States regarding the Ancona case reached Berlin so late that only part of the morning newspapers were able to print it. There were no comments on the communication. A general lack of interest in the matter would appear to be indicated by the fact that the papers print the note on an inside page or give it only secondary position on the front page.

The Eye--

A HELPMATE -OR- A TROUBLE-MAKER

In comparison with the gift of sight our other senses are unimportant indeed. And yet most of us will pay infinitely more attention to a sore finger than to tired, overstrained eyes.

Our eyes are at rest only when we are asleep. When all our other senses are in repose our eyes are ever busy, willing servants even when subjected to myriad forms of abuse—long hours at concentrated tasks, reading in a poor light, fine sewing, etc. All these abuses are endured with only occasional grumbling pains in the eyeball, headaches or dizziness—until complete rebellion that means untold suffering or total blindness.

Heed these warnings in time. Glasses will not help the blind.

By Special Wire to the Courier

Berlin, via London, —Seldom has a diplomat of a war series met with approval in German circles. Minister of foreign affairs from the United States, Ancona case. The reply not only as a success in points in Secretary of State, but as a dignified American demands for a pardon and punishment of the commander of the submarine the Ancona.

The German notes on the correspondent seem to be many too considerate, and insufficiently apt, but his opinion expressed in politics is that Baron Burián struck the right note by inviting the Kaiser to enter an interchange and submit some proposals, and shifted the onus of the blame to the American government.

BERLIN PAPERS PL. Berlin, via London, Dec. 16.—The Lokal Anzeiger, the Tages-Zeitung and the Am. Mittag all express their approval of the Austrian reply to the American note. Of the out of town Cologne Gazette and the Volks Zeitung praise the polished manner in which the German found weaknesses in the American reply.

The Lokal Anzeiger points out the American expectations of compliance with all the demands, the Austrian government while a dignified disclaimer against unjustified sharpness of demands, and the foundation for the agreement against the submarine course.

"It is the president's duty to prove that the Ancona did not continue," he is unwise in this, he will have no alternative view of his earlier interpretation of international law, to abandon satisfaction of his demands.

"The Austro-Hungarian government in any case has placed the unpleasant position of being asked to receive an invitation to change views, rather than the demand for prompt reply complying wishes."
