KILLED AT UUB-URG.

MR. MALLORY'S CUTTER STRUCK

AT A CROSSING. Mrs. Mallory instantly Killed and Mr. Mallory Severely Injured, but May Recover.

Cobourg, Dec. 11 .- A distressing accident occurred here that resulted in a prominent citizen being seriousinjured and his wife being instantly killed. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mallory were driving into town from their home, about four miles east, on the gravel road. When crossing the Kingston crossing, a mile east of the town, their cutter was struck by the passenger express going west, due here at 12.30. It is thought that Trs. Mallory's neck was broken, death resulting almost instantly. Mr. Mallory was unconscious when picked up. Both were brought on to Cobourg on the train. Mrs. Mallory, remaining pressure and the train. lory's remains were removed to the undertaker's. Mr. Mallory was taken to the residence of his brother-in-law, Dr. Jones. The local physicians were called in, and it is hoped that he will recover. Mrs. Mallory was formerly Miss Furlough of Warkworth, She leaves a family of sons and daughters, who have the sympathy of the entire At 10 o'clock last night Mr. Mallory was still alive, but there is very little hope of his recovery. Mr. Mallory was a candidate for the Legislative Assembly at the bye-election of 1888, and was defeated by Dr. Willoughby, the present member, by three votes. He was elected President of the Patrons in 1890, and was their candidate in the Dominion elections of 1896.
