Worse Than Sawdust-He Will do All He Can Against the Government.

Quebec, Nov. 4.—Among the soldiers anded from the Idaho was a Prince Edward Islander who went to South Africa as a member of the Mounted infantry. He is Dr. Dillon, of Charlottetown, and if any Dr. Dillon, of Charlottetown, and if any one wants a frank opinion of the emergency rations let him read the testimony of the Prince Edward Islander. He was describing what he called the rottenness of the ration, and pausing a moment for an illustrative word a listener suggested "Sawdust." "Sawdust," said Dillon, in contempt, "would be a full course meal compared with our emergency ration. It is a hard thing to say, but if my father, who is a Liberal, supports the Government that sent us out with a rotten rations like that, I will leave the house. I will be in Charlottetown as soon as I can get there, and I will do all I can against the Government that held our lives so lightly."

TOOK HER OWN LIFE. Mrs. Charles Hart, of Dover, put an end to her existence in a fit of melancholy on Friday by taking a dose of Paris green. The deceased lady has been in a depressed state since the departure of one of her sons for Michigan recently to work. A husband and six children are left to mourn her loss and have the profound sympathy of the entire community.

cheers. Under the new faith, as declared by Mr. Charltom—and after denouncing most of the old one—he was elected by acclamation the other day for North Norfolk. The Liberals thought they would scare Mr. Charlton back into the old traces by putting up a straight Liberal against him, Mr. Charlton just smiled from the northwest corner of his mouth; winked the other eye, and said, "Come on McDuff." When the pairty of purity" discovered that the bluff did not pan out worth a raw onion, they pulled in their ears and horns, and sent their own nominee home to milk the cattle. Now, ladies and gentlemen, let me ask my pious opponents something. Where did they pick up their alleged Master Minds? Out of what nest did they yank out that man Tarte? Why, Tarte was a Liberal-Conservative all his life until he played traitor to the Hom. Mr. Langevin and Mr. McGreevey, just because he was not allowed to dip his paws into the boodle pie that he alleged was passing around the table at Ottawa. Again, where did the Liberals find Sir Richard Cartwright? Why, Sir Richard Cartwright? Why, Sir Richard Cartwright? Why, Sir Richard was a Conservative all his life until the Liberals picked him up as a stray sheep and firmly tethered him in their fold. And, moreover, what little of genuine statesmanship Sir Richard knows was learned at the feet of that greatest of statesmen of this country, Sir John A. Macdonald.—Applause. Tarte and Cartwright contributed their prettiest to ruin the Liberal-Conservative party, but failed and they have glomously succeeded in wrecking the present government, ladies and gentlemen, I have a higher precedent for changing my convictions, when I think they are wrong. Did not the great Gladstone receive nearly all of his vast political education in the Conservative party? Yet he abandoned that party.

ASSAILED A BAD LAW. urday evening in Nasrey Hall, and the ilding was filled to more than its full capacity, Like Baalam's message-reversed-the meeting was intended to bless the Liberal party, when, lo and behold! it cursed it altogether. The array of Liberal orators was sufficiently numerous to corner the oratorical market, viz., O. L. ner the oratorical market, viz., O. L. Lewis, J. G. Kerr, N. H. Stevens, A. B. McCoig, R. H. Murphy, Rev. W. Thomas, Geo. Stephens and others. To oppose this army were Geo. G. Martin and the Rev. Mr. Bazie. It was a veritable ease of two Daniels against half a dozen Soleaths, with exactly the result recorded in Scripture. The Rev. Mr. Eady—a new disciple to Liberalism—occupied the chair. Mr. Eady made a lengthy speech in which he described how the spirit moved him to forsake his old love, and gave a prayerful exhibition of the new faith which he is now loaded—the wrong way.

McCoig was the next speaker Mr. McCoig was the next speaker, and it is needless to say, that he is a good fluent talker., (But the facts were agin him," as he suddenly discovered by the continuous interruptions of a large audience. Mr. McCoig saw that he was bucking against a large section of his hearers and gracefully avited.

G. G. MARTIN SPEAKS. The chairman then called upon Mr. Martin, who was received with cheers. The chairman then called upon Mr. Martin, who was received with cheers. There is quite an evolution since four years ago in the conduct of elections, and this, too, immensely for the better, said Mr. Martin, on coming forward. Neither money nor votes are now made by the personal abuse of your opponents. There are great and good men in both parties, and at the outset I am pleased to admit that Mr. Stephens is a highly respectable, honorable citizen, But Mr. Stephens is allied to a party that is at war with the best interests of this country, and would, if sent to Qttawa, be a mere automaton voting machine for whom Tarte, the arch traitor, is the real and practical head. Cheers.

The reverend chairman will admit there is inexpressible joy in heaven over the return of one prodigal sinner, and I can assure you, ladies and gentlemen that old Michael declared a holiday in paradise and called out the string band when I hobbled into the camp of the great partyl of progress and good government, viz., the Liberal-Conservative party. Che al-Conservative party. Che opponents says that any sumes to see new light inc. th the Liberal candle dip, i of the unpardonable sin, and that he is like Shakespeare's unmusical man, not to be trusted. Loud cheers. Well, I think I am in good company in my pilgrimage. Mr. Chok, who was a member for East Simose for over a quarter of a century could no longer stand the broken pledges and hypocrisy of the Tarte-Laurier government, and he left the scuttling, corment, and he left the scuttling, cor rupt old scow in disgust. Then where is John Charlton ! Well, like old Diogenes, Charlton is running around

ASSAILED A BAD LAW. I am going for the first time in this can

I am going for the first time in this campaign to introduce an outrageous piece of rasea it perfer and by the Hardy Government at the instance of the loan companies and money lenders that will make your hair stand on end. Remember that the Hardy-Ross Government is simply a creaking, greaseless donkey engine to the big Liberal factory at Ottaws, and as the one will die without any hope of resurrection on Wednesday next, so will the other the moment it dares to come before an outraged people. Cheers Let me go on with this little interesting scheme to land every farmer in Ontario in gaol who owed one dollar as interest on a mortgage.

Ontario in gaol who owed one dollar as interest on a mortgage.

A voice—Put t em all out in a bunch.

In the year of grace 1897 this act was passed. I hold the statute now in my hand, and I defy the legal gentlemen here in behalf of Mr. Stephens to deny one word I say as to this far-reaching and iniquitous piece of legislation.

The object of the act was to make any small arrears of interest on mortgages capable of being sued in the division court, and hence subject to the judgment summons provisions of that court, and in this way fill our jails with the honest farmers of this country. It was, of course, intended as a scarecrow bogay to make the burdened farmers get a hustle on and fork up. (Cries of shame!) T. A. Smith, our coming M. P., drew my attention to this handy club law, and asked met to raise a public storm in asked me' to raise a public storm in the press against it, and you wager that I did so. I raised such a hurri-cane from Labrador to British Columbia that drove Hardy out of office, and left nothing but a few bits of mangled debris at Toronto as a government, which can only be called such by the instigation of the imagination. Well,

I got a five cent pen and marched at once to The Planet office and inter-

to hind the scope and nature of this jug act. I asked him for the use of space in his great journal to arouse public opinion, when that, spirited journalist said: "Mr. Martin, you can have the whole Planet, devils and printing office, until you throttle this iniquity." Well, I sailed in, in my own humble way, and wrote a series of letters to The Planet, which in less than three days were wholly or partly opied by nearly all the leading journals—including several Liberal ones—not only in Ontario but in the Dominion and in the border states, as The Planet exchanges showed. Not only this, ladies and gentlemen, but the attempted outrage was so horrible in the eyes of the civilized world that what ware at least considered pithy in the great and mighty Liberal Globe gave me the free use of its columns, and it founded a lengthy editorial upon my Planet letters, and agreed with every work in the foot agreed with every work with a flop. I now show you the Ontario statute of 1898—the very next eases on—when Mr. Hardy had to take a pen as long as a tiglegraph pole and dip it in an ink bottle the size of a roncession ditch. This is what the good farmers got from the local government, and it is for you to say whether it is worse than the outrage of the Ottawa machine in doubling the prices of binder twine, coal oil, fence wire, sugar and hard-uarge of the Ottawa machine in doubling the prices of binder twine, coal oil, fence wire, sugar and hard-uarge of the Ottawa he would permanently stay and extreme and coal, fence wire, sugar and hard-uarge of the Ottawa machine in doubling the prices of binder twine, coal oil, fence wire, sugar and hard-uarge of the Ottawa machine in doubling the prices of binder twine, coal oil, fence wire, sugar and hard-uarge of the Ottawa machine in doubling the prices of binder twine, coal oil, fence wire, sugar and hard-uarge of the Ottawa machine in doubling the prices of binder twine, coal oil, fence wire, sugar and hard-uarge of the Ottawa machine in doubling the prices of binder twine, coal o

Mr. Stevens was received with great cheering and he deserved it. Mr. Stevens has developed into an excellent fluent speaker. He is the soul of good nature and never gets ruffled or excited. Mr. Stevens was the only Libertly nearly to whom the large affled or excited. Mr. Stevens was the mly Liberal speaker to whom the large udience paid attention and if a particle of mpression was made in the interests of Mr. tephens, he may thank N. H. Stevens for Mr. Stevens spoke for one half an hour, and frequently received great cheering.

Just as all the other speakers concluded, Ald. Stephens entered the struck of a late hour, and marched Now, ladies and gentlemen, let me read to you the true and genuine character of T.

Just as all the other speakers concluded, Ald. Stephens entered the church at a late hour and marched to the platform with loud cheers. Mr. Stephens gave quite a lengthy speech and he also is developing into quite a good speaker. Mr. Stephens' speech was almost entirely taken up denouncing his opponent, and denying all and everything said about himself. Mr. Stephens' received a good hearing and was warmly cheered upon hearing and was warmly cheered upon

After the meeting was over there was a cake contention in the rear, and the reporter left the Liberal delegation and several other parties heavily investing in cake.

Three tremendous cheers were given for Mayor Smith, and the same compliment was paid to Mir. Stephens,

A Large Montreal Firm Says That Will be the Result

Sir Charles Tupper Wiss-They Will Cive an Immediate

Montreal, Nov. 5 .- Much interest was created in labor circles Saturday night by the reading of a letter ato delighted thousands of workingmen. It was read by J. F. Quinn, the Conservative candidate, in St. Anne's division of Montreal, and was signed by the largest industrial firm in its line of business in Canada. Among other things it stated that the uncertain Government of the Liberal party, their shifting policy and the feeling of insecurity which this engenders makes trade matters doubtful, under any policy the Liberals may, for the moment, adopt. This is always injurious, mot only to employers but to employes. If there was in power a party that could be depended upon for a stable trade policy the workingmen of Canada would have a share in the industrial boom that the whole world is experiencing.

"The hands in our establishment are largely men of skilled labor; and, provided the Conservatives are returned to power our intention is to give an immediate advance to our work people. This step is of such a character that it is certain to be followed in many parts of the Dominion, adm will, no doubt, become general. was created in labor circles Satur-
