EDITORIAL NOTES

It seems scarcely possible that the Christmas season is only a little over two weeks away. The glad time always comes with a rush at the end and the wise will not longer delay in making necessary preparations for the festival. Our adv. columns indicate that some of the business-places at least have taken time by the forelock and are prepared for Christmas shoppers. All will need to be alert if they wish to reap the harvest that the yuletide furnishes the enterprising merchant. The Acadian will gladly render every assistance in its power and is in a position to be of real use as its columns during the next two weeks will be eagerly scanned by those who seek suggestions for holiday gifts. Shop early and buy where you are invited to buy is our advice and good advice top.

One and might be adopted with profit in Nova Scotia. In fact there are many things which we might learn from the younger provinces if we were not too wise to be taught. Co-operation between producer and consumer in Nova Scotia should be as active as it is in British Columbia and not for a week, or a month or a year, but all the time. That such co-operation does not exist is adequately shown by the fact that in the menus of our leading hotels a first place is given to all manner of tropical fruits while the apple is rarely given a place. The Nova Scotia apple is not a product of which any hotel chef need be ashamed. It offers culinary opportunities which would tempt the palate of even the mest blase trayeller accustomed to the exotic fleshpots of any land.

Advocates of diversified farming, even on the five or ten-acre orchard, are having their innings this year. The fruit grower with a cow or two, a flock of hens pig, yes, and a few bees, is feel-ing the pinch of low fruit prices than the man who depends solely on his trees.
