The Infallible Remedy! HOLLOWAY'S PILLS. ERYSIPELAS OF EIGHT YEARS' DURATION CURED. Copy of a Letter from Geo. Sinclair, Esq., of Paris, Canada, dated the 18th July, 1854. Sir,—I feel a pleasure and a pride in bearing witness to the wonderful benefit I have derived by the use of your inestimable Ointment and Pills. For eight years I suffered uncessantly from attacks of erysipelas; large purple blotches came all over my body; in addition to the unpleasant feeling of itching and burning, which affected me both night and day, rendering life a misery to me, as well as to all around,—so severe was the attack. I used several reputed remedies without deriving the least cessation to my misery. At last, I determined to try your Ointment and Pills; after taking them for a few weeks, a visible improvement took place, and I feel considerably better,—in three months, by continuing with your medicines, I was completely cured, and now enjoy the best of health. The truth of this statement is well known here, hence there is no necessity for me to request secrecy. I am, Sir, yours respectfully, (Signed) GEO. SINCLAIR.

ULCERS IN THE LEG.—REMARKABLE CURE. Copy of a Letter from Mr. Edward Tomkinson, of Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, dated the 4th May, 1854. To Professor Holloway. Sir,—My sister, Miss Jane Tomkinson, suffered for a great number of years from a bad leg; in which there were several deeply seated and old wounds, defying the skill of some of the most eminent of the medical faculty, a variety of remedies were also used unsuccessfully; and it seemed to me that there was not any thing capable of mitigating the agonies she endured. At length, she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and after using them for about six weeks, she was completely cured, after all other means had failed to afford her the slightest relief. I have no objection to these facts being published, if you feel disposed to make them known. I remain, Sir, your most obedient servant. (Signed) EDWD. TOMKINSON.

A BAD BREAST CURED WHEN AT DEATH'S DOOR! Copy of a Letter from Mr. Henry Malden, of Three Rivers, Canada West, dated July 9th, 1854. To Professor Holloway. Sir,—My wife suffered most severely after the birth of our last child with a bad breast. There were several holes in it one as large as a hand; all the devices and stragems I tried would not heal them, but it assumed an aspect more frightful than before, and horrible to behold. As a last resource I tried your Ointment and Pills, which she persevered with for seven weeks, at the expiration of that time her breast was almost well; by continuing with your remedies for two more weeks, she was entirely cured, and we offer you our united thanks for the cure effected. I am, Sir, yours truly, (Signed) HENRY MALDEN.

Dr. De Roos, from long practical experience in the most celebrated institutions of this country and the continent, has had, perhaps, unusual opportunities of observing the peculiarities relating to the physiology, pathology, and general treatment of the diseases referred to in the above work, and having devoted his studies almost exclusively to this class of diseases, he is enabled confidently to undertake their removal in as short a time as is consistent with safety.

THE COMPOUND RENAL PILLS, as their name Renal (or the Kidneys) indicates, are the most safe and efficacious remedy for the above dangerous complaints, Discharges of any kind, and Diseases of the Urinary Organs generally, which if neglected, frequently result in stone in the bladder, and a lingering, painful death. They agree with the most delicate stomach, strengthen the digestive organs, increase the appetite, improve the general health, and will effect a cure when other medicines have utterly failed. Price 4s. 6d., 11s., & 32s. per Box, through all Medicine Vendors. GUARD AGAINST the recommendation of spurious or other articles by unprincipled Vendors who thereby obtain a large profit. To protect the PUBLIC against FRAUD, the following words, 'WALTER DE ROOS, LONDON,' to be printed in white letters on the Stamp affixed to the above, to indicate which is genuine.

ETERNITY.—If all lovers, when they swear to love for ever were really put to the test, there would be very few of them who would not be heartily tired of their eternal fidelity long before the first twelve-month was over. In a lover's vocabulary, Eternity means a week, a day, an hour; a waltz, a look, a whisper, a squeeze of the hand, a pressure of the foot, according to the lengthy period during which his love has lasted. A lover's Life is composed of Eternities. A fashionable lover is still in the open bloom of his youth, if he has not lived beyond fourscore Eternities, a minute.

No BAD REASON.—Some of the Russian officers declare, that the reason why they did not longer stand to their guns at Sebastopol, was because they no longer required any cannon-aid, (cannon-side).

MISCELLANEOUS.

A SPEECH IN TEMPRANCE CONVENTION.—At the recent N. Y. State Convention, a Mr. Charles Robinson, of Orleans county held forth this wise. He is a veteran in this cause, and has evidently been a faithful worker in all things:—"I don't profess to have done but little in the cause, but I profess to have worked as steadily and as faithful as any other man in the State. My influence has been but limited; but I have worked in my own house, and in my own family. I have worked my whole life over against my own house and my better half who is with me, though not one in the convention can say the same thing. We have got seven teen children—[loud and prolonged laughter]—seventeen children, gentlemen; and I speak of this to let you know that if I ain't done as much as any body else outside, I have in my own house, for we are all totaliters to the backbone. [Loud applause and laughter.] They are scattered though six States, and there are eleven girls. All aiding the work in their own houses too. [Laughter] There are only two or three of their husbands out of the whole squad, who are not totaliters."

Two of the West-end banking firms, Messrs. Ransom and Co, of Pall-mall East, and Messrs. Bouverie and Co., of the Haymarket, acting upon the recent suggestion that a combination of the smaller establishments would be advantageous both for themselves and the public, have resolved upon an amalgamation, and the business of the two houses will be conducted under the address of Ransom, Bouverie, and Co.

HURRAH!—This word is pure Slavonian, and is commonly heard from the coasts of Dalmatia to Behring's Straits, when any of the population living within these limits are called on to give proof of courage and valour. The origin of this word belongs to the primitive idea that every man that dies heroically for his country goes straight to heaven. Hurra! ("to Paradise"), and it is so that in the shock and ardour of battle the combatants utter that cry, as the Turks do that of "Allah!" each animating himself by the certitude of immediate recompense, to forget earth, and to contemn death.

AN IMPOSTOR.—The Cork papers have a story of an impostor who had obtained money and food from more than one of the peasantry, by pretending that he was a messenger from the other world. He persuaded on a comfortable farmer that he was his son, dead for some years; the farmer gave him a pound, with which he absconded. He induced the women at another house to believe that he was one of the "good people" (fairies), and they gave him 6s 8d as a fee for "bringing back Denis Reordan." He has been committed for trial.

ETERNITY.—If all lovers, when they swear to love for ever were really put to the test, there would be very few of them who would not be heartily tired of their eternal fidelity long before the first twelve-month was over. In a lover's vocabulary, Eternity means a week, a day, an hour; a waltz, a look, a whisper, a squeeze of the hand, a pressure of the foot, according to the lengthy period during which his love has lasted.
