Would Not Be Without
Baby's Own Tablets

Once a mother has used Baby's Own Tablets for her little ones she would not be without them. They are the ideal home remedy for the baby, being guaranteed to be absolutely free from opiates or other harmful drugs. They are a gentle but thorough laxative and have been proved of the greatest aid in cases of constipation, indigestion, colic, colds and simple fevers. Concerning them Mrs. Ernest Gagne, Beausjour, Que., writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for constipation and colic and have found them so successful that I would not be without them. I would strongly recommend every mother to keep a box in the house." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Wallace Reid A
Ghost Breaker
In Fine Picture

Popular Star Supported by Lila Lee and Walter Hiers in New Film

We have had strike breakers, trust busters, broncho busters and brute breakers; but now we have "The Ghost Breakers," a new form of hero which Wallace Reid is making popular in his new Paramount starring vehicle of the same name, which Manager Richards announces as his feature attraction at the Opera House Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday with Lila Lee, leading woman, and Walter Hiers featured with the star.

The picture, as the title implies, is a ghost story. It is not a "knock 'em down and drag 'em out" melodrama, but high class entertainment with adventure, mystery, intrigue, suspense, romance and creepy scenes with weird lighting effects in an old Spanish castle—all the elements that go to make up good melodrama and cause the spectators to sit and watch breathlessly each new development.

OBITUARY

LEWIS CORBETT

The death occurred Tuesday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Bliss Johnson, 97 John Street, Moncton, N. B., of Mr. Lewis Corbett, at the age of 77 years and 11 months.

The deceased gentleman was born in Scotland and came to this country fifty years ago. The late Mr. Corbett leaves to mourn their loss, two sons and four daughters. The sons are James H. Corbett, of Petit Rocher, N.B., and H. Kenneth, of Moncton, Mass.; Mrs. B. Johnson, of Moncton with whom he resided, and the Misses Irene and Enid, of New York, are the surviving daughters. There are also surviving two brothers, James Corbett, of Elgin, Scotland and William Corbett, of Newcastle, N.B. The late Mr. Corbett's wife passed away only six months ago.

MISS MARY JANE SUTTON
Many old friends of Miss Sutton on the Miramichi will regret to hear of her death which took place at ington, Mass. recently. Miss Sutton was born in Nelson, the eldest daughter of the late Hon. Richard Sutton at one time Surveyor General of the Province of New Brunswick. Shortly after the death of Mr. Sutton the family removed to the U.S. but the subject of this sketch remained on the Miramichi, where she had hosts of friends and where her brightness, wit and generosity made her a great social favorite.

About 25 years ago she removed to Ottawa securing a position in the Civil Service, which she continued to fill until ill-health obliged her to give up about two months ago, when, removing to Framington she quietly passed away at the home of her sister on the evening of the 25th April.

As it was her wish to be laid beside her father in Nelson cemetery her two nieces the Misses Hazel and Victoria Staples accompanied the remains to Nelson, arriving by the Ocean Limited on Saturday evening after a strenuous and exciting journey on account of the disorganized railway service by reason of the recent floods. As the time of arrival, owing to railway delays, was uncertain very few friends were aware of it but all possible were notified and several gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to the memory of another of Nelson's children.

And, so, after service at St. Patrick's Church by the Rev. E. P. Wallace, the remains were laid to rest beside her father, close by the river she loved so well and of the beauties of which she never ceased to speak.

Miss Sutton is survived by her mother, two sisters and two brothers.

MRS. JAMES LIVINGSTONE

The death of Mrs. Sarah Livingstone, widow of late James Livingstone, of Harcourt, occurred at the home of her brother, Archibald Campbell, Harcourt, Thursday morning. Although ill for several months, death came very suddenly as Mrs. Livingstone had planned to go to Sunny Brae the day she died. She deceased was 79 years of age, a respected member of the Presbyterian church and loved by a large circle of friends. She was a native of Kent county. She leaves to mourn their loss, two brothers, Edward Campbell of Bass River, Kent Co., and Archibald of Harcourt; three sisters, Amanda (Mrs. Wm. Murray), Green-Me.; Elizabeth (Mrs. John Stevenson), Springhill, N.S., and one who lives in Beersville, Kent Co., and the following children: Frederick, Livingstone, Watrous, Sask.; Agnes (Mrs. James Lyons) Millerton, N. B.; Amelia, (Mrs. Hedley T. Atkinson), Nelson, N.B. and Anna (Mrs. Otty A. Bailey), Sunny Brae. The funeral took place at Harcourt Saturday afternoon.

MRS. THOS. O'BRIEN

The death of Mrs. Thomas O'Brien of Chaplin Island Road, occurred very suddenly on Monday morning last. Mrs. O'Brien was working around the house about 7.30 when she was seized with a weak spell, passing away in about five minutes. She is survived by her husband, three sons—Thomas, Frank and Louis all at home, and two daughters Mrs. R. J. Goodwin and Miss May O'Brien, of Worcester, Mass.; also three sisters and four brothers. The funeral took place on Wednesday morning to St. Mary's church, Newcastle, where services were conducted by Rev. P. W. Dixon, and interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery.

Why You Should Use a Mild Soap

Harsh soap dries the natural oils and is apt to irritate the skin and make it scaly. In the mild, soothing, creamy lather of Palmolive you have an ideal cleanser. It is lotion-like in its action. It soothes while it cleanses.

Artful application of rouge and powder may lend your skin the appearance of smooth freshness, but when this is washed off, what a cruel revelation!

You can easily possess a fine complexion by giving your skin proper care. Instead of putting your skin to sleep with cold creams and cosmetics, wake it up with soap and water. Cleanse each tiny pore and skin cell, revive sluggish circulation. Get rid of the blackheads which are only accumulated dirt.

Use Palmolive Soap and apply it with your two hands. Massage it thoroughly into your skin and remove with many warm rinsings. This treatment makes your skin fresh as a rose.

You can buy Palmolive Soap at all first-class dealers.

Palm and olive oils—nothing else—give nature's green color to Palmolive Soap
