POETRY.

SLEEP.

I waked; the sun was in the sky, The face of heaven was fair, The silence all about me lay Of morning in the air.

I said: where has thou been, my soul, Since the moon set in the west? I know not where thy feet have trod, Nor what has been thy quest,

Where wert thou when Orion passed Below the dark blue sea? His glittering, silent stars are gone -Did'st follow them for me?

Where wert thou in that awful hour When first the night wind heard The faint breath of the coming dawn, And fled before the word?

Where hast thou been, my spirit, Since the long wave on the shore Tenderly rocked my sense asleep

Thou hast shown me no fair cities, No glories once I knew. Nor those my fancy paints for me Where skies are ever blue.

And I heard thee no more?

My limbs, like breathing marble, Have lain in this warm down; No heavenly chant no earthly care,

Has wakened smile or frown. I wake; thy kiss is on my lips; Thou art my day, my sun; But where, O spirit, where wert thou While sands of night have run?

SELECT STORY.

November.

THE PIONEERS

By J. Finimore Cooper AUTHOR OF "THE LAST OF THE MOHICANS," "THE PATHFINDER," "HOMEWARD BOUND," ETC.

CONTINUED.

crowd without. Among the captives were | following questions: the guilty, downcast countenances of the counterfeiters, and the simple but honest sir." features of the Leather-Stocking. The dungeons were to be distinguished, ex- justice-peace." ternally, from the debtor's apartments logs as a protection against the illegal use | dwelling?" its sides. In the centre was a seat fur- come for'ard in the business." nished with rude arms, that was always its ends were rows of seats, rising one above the other, for jury-boxes. Each of above the other, for jury-boxes. Each of above the other of jury-boxes. Each of jury-boxes of seats, rising one above the other of jury-boxes. Each of jury-boxes of seats, rising one above the other of jury-boxes. Each of jury-boxes ing. The remainder of the room was an of another."

lawyers had taken possession of the table, gentlemen, the words of the witness, 'one and the noise of moving feet had ceased neighbor wanting to enter the house of in the area, the proclamations were made another.' Now, sir, I ask you if Nathaniel in the usual form, the jurors were sworn. Bumppo did not again and again order the charge was given, and the court pro- | you not to enter?" ceeded to hear the business before them.

description of the captious discussions that occupied the court for the first two hours. Judge Temple had impressed on not to enter his habitation?" the jury, in his charge, the necessity for dispatch on their part, recommending to their notice, from motives of humanity, the prisoners in the jail as the first objects period we have mentioned had elapsed, prisoner forbid your entering his hut?" the cry of the officer to "clear the way for the grand jury," announced the entrance of that body. The usual forms were observed, when the foreman handed up to the bench two bills, on both of which the Judge observed, at the first this order?" glance of his eye, the name of Nathaniel Bumppo. It was a leisure moment with | hand." the court; some low whispering passed between the bench, and the sheriff, who amination." gave a signal to his officers, and in a very few minutes the silence that prevailed Leather-Stocking made his appearance, ushered into the criminal's bar under the | plied: custody of two constables. The hum ceased, the people closed into the open space again, and the silence soon became so deep that the hard breathing of the prisoner was audible.

Natty was dressed in his buckskin garhe wore only a shirt of coarse linen-check. deer, leaving his red neck and weatherbeaten face exposed and bare. It was the first time that he had ever crossed the court please." threshold of a court of justice, and curiosity seemed to be strongly blended with charge. his personal feelings. He raised his eyes to the bench, thence to the jury-boxes, the bar, and the crowd without, meeting everywhere looks fastened on himself. After surveying his own person, as search- process, he has an undoubted right to call ing the cause of this unusual attraction, he once more turned his face around the of such assistant come within the protecassemblage, and opened his mouth in one tion of the law. I shall leave you to of his silent and remarkable laughs.

The order was either unheard or unheeded.

peated the Judge.

Natty started at the sound of his own name, and, raising his face earnestly toward the bench, he said:

"Anan!" Mr. Lippet arose from his seat at the they did not fail of carrying due weight table, and whispered in the ear of the with the jury. The grave-looking yeomen prisoner; when Natty gave him a nod of who composed this tribunal, laid their assent, and took the deer-skin covering heads together for a few minutes, with-

The duties of public prosecutor were discharged by Dirck Van der School, who adjusted his spectacles, cast a cautious Nathaniel Bumppo," said the Judge. look around him at his brethren of the "Anan!" said Natty. bar, which he ended by throwing his "You are found not guilty of striking head aside so as to catch one glance over and assaulting Mr. Doolittle." of Hiram Doolittle, and was couched in simplicity, "and that I —" the ancient language of such instruments, "You are acquitted," interrupted the especial care having been taken by the Judge, "and there is nothing further to would never have thought of bringing the scribe not to omit the name of a single | be said or done in the matter." offensive weapon known to the law. A look of joy lighted up the features of been subpoenced?" When he had done, Mr. Van der School | the old man, who now comprehended the | "I don't think I should; he gi'n the removed his spectacles, which he closed case, and, placing his cap eagerly on his skin, and I didn't feel a hard thought, and placed in his pocket, seemingly for head again, he threw up the bar of his though Squire Doodlittle got some affrontthe pleasure of again opening and re- little prison, and said, feelingly: placing them on his nose. After this evo- "I must say this for you, Judge Temple, lution was repeated once or twice, he that the law has not been so hard on me probably relying on the charge of the handed the bill over to Mr. Lippet, with a as I dreaded. I hope God will bless you Judge, as he again seated himself, with hole in that if you can." Natty listened to the charge with great | But the staff of the constable was op- "When Mr. Van der School arose to attention, leaning forward toward the posed to his egress, and Mr. Lippet whisp-address the jury, he commenced by saying: boson. the reader with an earnestness that de- ered a few words in his ear, when the "Gentlemen of the jury, I should have Man cannot fly, but he can utilize the

he raised his tall body to the utmost, and removing his cap, stroked down the redrew a long sigh. All eyes were turned | mnants of his gray and sandy locks, with | tions I mean telling him what to say), to the prisoner, whose voice was vainly an air of mortification mingled with sub- did I not feel confident that the law of ON WAKING FROM A DREAMLESS expected to break the stillness of the mission.

> Bumppo," said the judge; "what do you dictment." plead to the charge ?"

year of the old war-court will assign him counsel."

after a short dialogue with the hunter in he exclaimed: a low voice, he informed the court that they were ready to proceed.

"Do you plead guilty or not guilty?"

rather died on the spot, than had him put foot in the hut at that moment." Richard started at this declaration, and some who thinks there's no God in a bent his eyes significanty on Hiram, who | wilderness! -Annie Fields, in Harper's Magazine for returned the look with a slight move-nent of his evebrows. Attorney," continued the Judge. "Mr. Clerk, enter the plea of not guilty." After a short opening address from Mr.

livered to the letter, perhaps, but with all | laugh, and, pointing to where the woodthat moral coloring which can be convey- chopper stood, he said: ed under such expressions as, "thinking no harm," "feeling it my bounden duty d'ye think, if I had used the rifle?" as a magistrate," and "seeing that the constable was back'ard in the business." The edifice was composed of a basement | When he had done, and the district atof squared logs, perforated here and there torney declined putting any further in- that I never fired at all. Billy, do you rewith small grated windows, through which | terrogatories, Mr. Lippet arose, with an | a few wistful faces were gazing at the air of keen investigation, and asked the that was better than common firing; but

"Are you a constable of this country,

"No, sir," said Hiram, "I'm only a "I ask you, Mr. Doolittle, in the face of only by the size of the apertures, the this court, putting it to your conscience thickness of the grates, and by the heads and your knowledge of the law, whether of the spikes that were driven into the you had any right to enter that man's of edge-tools. The upper story was of "Hem!" said Hiram, undergoing a violframework, regularly covered with boards, ent struggle between his desire for vengeand contained one room decently fitted up ance and his love of legal fame; "I do for the purpose of justice. A bench, suppose — that in — that is — strict law raised on a narrow platform to the height | that supposing - maybe I hadn't a real of a man above the floor, and protected in lawful right; but as the case was - and front by a light railing, ran along one of Billy was so back'ard -I thought I might "I ask you again, sir." continued the a level with the floor of the room, was a this old, this friendless old man, did or large table covered with green baize, and did not repeatedly forbid your entrance?" Lippet conducted an artful cross-examinasurrounded by benches; and at either of "Why, I must say," said Hiram, "that

"Oh! then you own it was only meant open square, appropriated to the spectafor a neighborly visit on your part, and When the judges were seated, the without the sanction of law. Remember,

"There was some words passed between We shall not detain the reader with a us," said Hiram, "but I read the warrant to him aloud."

"I repeat my question; did he tell you

"There was a good deal passed betwixt us - but I've the warrant in my pocket; maybe the court would wish to see it?" "Witness," said Judge Temple, "answer of their attention. Accordingly, after the the question directly; did or did not the

"Why, I some think ---- ' "Answer without equivocation," continued the Judge, sternly. "He did"

"And did you attempt to enter after "I did; but the warrant was in my

"Proceed, Mr. Lippet, with your ex-But the attorney saw that the impress ion was in favor of his client, and waving was interrupted by a general movement his hand with a supercilious manner, as if in the outer crowd, when presently the unwilling to insult the understanding of the jury with any further defence, he re-

> "No, sir; I leave it for your honor to charge; I rest my case here." "Mr. District Attorney," said the Judge,

"have you anything to say?" Mr. Van der School removed his spec tacles, folded them and, replacing them ments, without his coat, in place of which once more on his nose, eyed the other bill which he held in his hand, and then fastened at his throat by the sinew of a said, looking at the bar over the top of his glasses:

Judge Temple arose and began the "Gentlemen of the jury," he said, "you have heard the testimony, and I shall detain you but a moment. If an officer meets with resistance in the execution of a any citizen to his assistance; and the acts judge, gentlemen, from the testimony, "Prisoner, remove your cap," said Judge how far the witness in this prosecution can be so considered, feeling less reluctance to submit the case thus informally to your decision, because there is yet "Nathaniel Bumppo, be uncovered," re- another indictment to be tried, which involves heavier charges against the unfortunate prisoner.'

The tone of Marmaduke was mild and insinuating, and, as his sentiments were given with such apparent impartiality, out leaving the box, when the foreman "Mr. District Attorney," said the Judge, arose, and, after the forms of the court "the prisoner is ready; we wait for the were duly observed, he pronounced the prisoner to be :-

"Not guilty." "You are acquitted of this charge, shall order the next."

the glasses, when he proceeded to read "No, no, I'll not deny but that I took this day." noted his interest; and when it was ended, aged hunter sank back into his place, and, interrupted the leading questions put by flight of stairs when he wants to go up.

the grand jury have made, Nathaniel his minutes, "proceed with the second in- the prisoner, gentlemen, has endeavored cal line.

"'Tis a wicked untruth; I crave no won't say it to my face that I ever thirst-"I may say not guilty, with a clean soldier that feared his Maker and his conscience," returned Natty; "for there's officer, but I never pulled trigger on any no guilt in doing what's right; and I'd but a warrior that was up and awake. No

"Attend to your plea, Bumppo," said the Judge; "you hear that you are accused "Proceed to open the cause, Mr. District of using your rifle against an officer of justice? are you guilty or not guilty?" By this time the irritated feelings of Natty had found vent; and he rested on the Van der School, Hiram was summoned to bar for a moment, in a musing posture, duty to convict him; but if you believe the bar to give his testimony. It was de- when he lifted his face, with his silent

> "Wouln Billy Kirby be standing there, "Then you deny it," said Mr. Lippet: 'you plead not guilty?" "Sartain," said Natty; "Billy knows member the turkey last winter? an! me! I can't shoot as I used to could." "Enter the plea of not guilty," said Judge Temple, strongly affected by the simplicity of the prisoner.

Hiram was again sworn, and his testimony given on the second charge. He had discovered his former error, and pro ceeded more cautiously than before. He related very distinctly, and, for the man, with amazing terseness, the suspicion against the hunter, the complaint, the issuing of the warrant, and the swearing in of Kirby; all of which, he affirmed were done in due form of law. He then added the manner in which the constable had been received; and stated, distinctly, that Natty had pointed the rifle at Kirby, and threatened his life if he attempted to filled by the presiding judge. In front, on lawyer, following up his success, "whether by Jotham, who was observed to adhere by Jotham by Jotham > age, in despair. At length the District Attorney called the wood-chopper to the bar. Billy gave an extremely confused account of the whole affair, although he evently aimed at the truth, until Mr. Van der School > aided him, by asking some direct ques-"It appears from examining the papers, that you demanded admission into the hut legally; so you were put in bodily fear by his rifle and threats?"

"I didn't mind them that, man," said Billy, snapping his fingers; I should be a poor stick to mind old Leather-Stocking." "But I understood you to say (referring to your previous words) as delivered here in the court) in the commencement of your testimony)that you thought he meant Hank, whar did ye get it?"

to shoot you?" "To be sure I did; and so would you, too, squire, if you had seen a chap dropping a muzzle that never misses, and cocking an eve that has a natural squint by long practice. I thought there would be a dust on't, and my back was up at once; but Leather-Stocking gi'n up the skin, and so the matter ended." "Ah! Billy," said Natty shaking his lick ye when he finds his galluses busthead, "twas a lucky thought in me to throw out the hide, or there might have ed?"-Pittsburg Dispatch. been blood spilt; and I'm sure, if it had your'n, I should have mourned it sorely AROUND THE WORLD IN THIRTY the little while I have to stay." "Well, Leather-Stocking," returned Billy, facing the prisoner with a freedom and familiarity that utterly disregarded the presence of the court, "as you are on the subject, it may be that you've ne ---" "Go on with your examination, Mr.

District Attorney." That gentleman eyed the familiarity between his witness and the prisoner with manifest disgust, and indicated to the court that he was done.

"Then you didn't feel frightened, Mr. "I shall rest the prosecution here, if the self-satisfaction; "I'm not to be skeared > were you born, sir?" "Varmount State; 'tis a mountaynious tal, for a starting point, the following rates place, but there's a stiff soil, and it's pretty of time predicted will be found easily much wooded with beach and maple."

"I have always heard so," said Mr. Lippet soothingly. "You have been used to the rifle yourself in that country." "I pull the second best trigger in this Quebec to Vancouver by rail, ounty. I knock under to Natty Bumppo there, sin' he shot the pigeon." Leather-Stocking raised his head, and by fast steamer, making 18 laughed again, when he abruptly thrust out a wrinkled hand, and said: "You're young yet, Billy, and haven't seen the matches that I have: but here's my hand; I bear no malice to you, I St. Petersburg to London

Mr. Lippet allowed this conciliatory offering to be accepted, and judiciously paused, while the spirit of peace was exercising its influence over the two; but the Judge interposed his authority.

logues," he said; "proceed with your ex-The attorney started, as if unconscious of any impropriety, and continued: very amicably on the spot, did you?"

ing a buck!" "And you parted friends? and you only horizon is the infinite. business up before a court, hadn't you

"I have done, sir," said Mr. Lippet, was certain.

the land was superior to any advantages "Mr. District Attorney," said Judge (I mean legal advantages) which he

to persuade you, in opposition to your own Mr. Van der School took great care good sense, to believe that pointing a rifle The old man dropped his head for a that no part of the presentment, which at a constable (elected or deputed) is a Aeronautic Navigation Co., whose author noment in a reflecting attitude, and then, he now read, should be lost on his auditraising it, he laughed before he answered: ors. It accused the prisoner of resisting mean the commonwealth, gentlemen) "That I handled the man a little rough the execution of a search-warrant, by shall not be endangered thereby. But company will proceed to erect a mamor so is not to be denied; but that there force of arms, and particularized in the let me claim your attention, while we moth establishment at Mt. Carmel, Ill., at was occasion to make use of all the things vague language of the law, among a variety look over the particulars of this heinous an earlyday, covering many acres of that the gentleman has spoken of, is down- of other weapons, the use of the rifle. offence." Here Mr. Van der School ground, and will work a vast army of right untrue. I am not much of a wrestler This was indeed a more serious charge favored the jury with an abridgment of skilled and common labor in the construcseeing that I'm getting old; but I was out than ordinary assault and battery, and a the testimony, recounted it in such a tion of these air ships and other machinery. among the Scotch-Irishers — let me see — corresponding degree of interest was man-manner as utterly to confuse the faculties These plants will undoubtedly be the it must have been as long ago as the first | ifested by the spectators in its result. The | of his worthy listeners. After this exhiprisoner was duly arraigned, and his plea bition he closed as follows: "And now and Buttler are taking out patents also on Mr. Lippet, if you are retained for the again demanded. Mr. Lippet had anticigentlemen, having thus made plain to-their aerial ship in all foreign countries. prisoner," interrupted Judge Temple, "in- pated the answers of Natty, and in a your senses the crime of which this un The elements, aluminium and electricity struct your client how to plead; if not the whisper advised him how to plead. But fortunate man has been guilty (unfortulated which are destined to form a very imthe feelings of the old hunter were awak- nate both on account of his ignorance and portant feature in aerial machine con-Aroused from studying the indictment ened by some of the expressions in the his guilt), I shall leave you to your own struction, were not until recently perby this appeal, the attorney got up, and indictment, and, forgetful of his caution, conscience; not in the least doubting that fected to such a degree that their properyou will see the importance (notwithstand- | ties could be considered for that purpose. ing the prisoner's counsel, doubtless re- There have been several machines conman's blood. Them thieves, the Iroquois, lying on your former verdict, wishes to structed that have been more or less suc-

> It was now the duty of the Judge to debelieve the witnesses, in their construction of the acts of the prisoner, it is your standstill in mid-air. that the old man, who this day appears but to do it with lenity."

of the laws."

TO BE CONTINUED THE ENGAGEMENT RING ROMÁNCE.

The first one usually doesn't cost much; pass into your love's sweet presence; there the ship sideways, either to the right or she sits expectant; before you know any- to the left. Directly under this is a rudthing about it her hand is in yours. Over der running horizontally. This is used to her taper fingers the jewelled band is raise or lower the ship when in motion. slipped, and what follows you remember The cabain is hung directly under the so well it need not be recalled. down in the wild Ozark region of Christian batteries, and, being at the extreme execute his duty. All this was confirmed | county, Missouri, almost within gunshot | side, acts as a ballast, and keeps the ship Missouri. He had never been out of the The front end of the cabin is occupied his ideas of engagement rings were limited. front of him a map and compass of his freckles - insisted upon a ring before she electricity. would consider the engagement binding.

Hank was nonplussed. afternoon his face wreathed in smiles.

ring of brass. Sallie smiled and reached out her hand. largest finger, and, leaning near the simple maiden, whispered:

is ingaged?" "Yes, Hank," Sal whispered, shaking

"Ye won't tell?" "Hones'?" "Hones' Hank."

inday galluses." Sal slipped over into Hank's arms, and cheeks touched, the girl whispered: "Say Hank, ain't ye 'fraid yer dad will direction of the millenium.

ber, says: It is nearly eight thousand miles from here to Japan, by the shortest of all western routes to the Orient; and with fair weather, I shall see Yokohama in about three weeks. Most of us can remember a time, — not so very long ago. journey of many weary months. Nevering, will certainly within a few years seem Kirby?" said the counsel for the prisoner. very slow. Faster steamers and swifter "Me! no," said Billy, casting his eyes trains will make the circuit of the world over his own huge frame with evident in thirty days a possible feat in the present generation. Only the completion of the Russian trans-Asiatic road to Vladivostock "You look like a hardy man; where is needed to create the possibility. Taking London, the world's commercial capi-

Days. Hours. London to Liverpool, by rail 0 Liverpool to Quebec by fast at 30½ miles an hour . . Vancouver to Vladivostock, knots 10 Vladivostock to St. Petersburg,by rail at 25 miles an

A total of thirty-five days, six hours. But these calculations include slow stages of travel. Forty miles an hour on the two great trans-continental roads will reduce "This is an improper place for such diathe time by more than five days; and such time will certainly be made in anamination of this witness, Mr. Lippet, or I | swer to commercial necessities. Already steamers swift as the great Atlantic vessels are being constructed for the great Pacific runs. Thus by mechanical sup-. "So you settled the matter with Natty pression of time, the planet is ever being made smaller for us. Perhaps, when it "He gi'n me the skin, and I didn't shall have begun to seem too small, man the bill aloud. It was the usual charge him a little roughly by the shoulders." want to quarrel with an old man; for my will turn more readily to the study of that for an assault and battery on the person said Natty, looking about him with great part, I see no such mighty matter in shoot- vaster world within himself,—whose deeps are yet unsounded and untravelled, whose

> Brought up with a round turn. The baken bucket.

> The man who can keep wide awake in the day-time won't have to do so at night Tramp (overjoyed) — "Found a quarter! By jove, I must really think about making my will."

The pupils of the professional natator cavalier air, that said as much as "Pick a for the kind things you've done to me the air of a man who felt that his success at the beach are getting along swimmingly You can't always tell the occupants of the starched shirt by the gloss on the

THE NEW AERIAL SHIP

Cincinnati Commercial Gazette. Aerial navigation has at last been solved by Mr. E. J. Pennington and R. H. Butler whose inventive abilities have been very "You have heard the presentment that Temple, affecting to busy himself with might obtain by his art. The counsel for prominent and successful in the mechani-

> They have sold their patents and other valuable inventions to the Mt. Carmel which stock is already taken, and the appear so confident of success) of punish- cessful, but none has achieved the degree ed after man's blood. I have fou't as a ing the offender, and asserting the dignity of perfection of the aerial ship recently invented and patented by Messrs. Pennington and Butler. This machine has liver his charge. It consisted of a short, all the important features necessary to man can say that I ever struck even a comprehensive summary of the testimony, make aerial navigation popular and prac-Mingo in his blanket. I believe there's laying bare the artifice of the prisoner's ticable. The inventors have taken in counsel, and placing the facts in so obvi- view the safety, speed and comfort to ous a light that they could not well be make this mode of travel attractive; they misunderstood. "Living as we do, gen- have perfected their ship so that it is tlemen," he concluded, "on the skirts of under absolute control of the operator, society, it becomes doubly necessary to and can be raised and lowered at will, go protect the ministers of the law. If you to any given point and return, attain a speed of 200 miles an hour or come to a The design of this aerial ship is on the same principle as the hull of a ship, with before you, meant not to harm the consta- about the same proportions. Ist appearble, but was acting more under the influ- ance, except being A shaped, is round ence of habit than by the instigations of and conical at both ends, having atmalice, it will be your duty to judge him, tached at either side two large wings extending the full length. These wings are arranged with devices that will adjust themselves automatically into a parachute, allowing the machine to descend to the earth gradually in case of accident. On outward corners of these wings are placed propeller wheels, which run right or left, but it costs enough for all that. You are for raising or lowering the ship. At the about twenty when you begin looking bow is a very large propeller wheel, which over the jeweler's advertisements and find propells the ship forward and backward, yourself wondering if she will be pleased and directly on the top of the buoyancy with v hat you save and pinch so to get. chamber is a rudder extending its full At length you have bought it. Then length and half the width of the wings, comes the eventful evening; you stroll that is used to steer the ship horizontally. down the street feeling your importance | A little to the rear and just behind this at every step; with thumping heart you top rudder is an adjustable rudder to steer main part of the frame, and directly un-Hank Hillard was born and reared away derneath the cabin is a space for storage

the county, much less out of the state, and by the pilot, or steersman, who has in

The speed of the machine depends on the will of the operator, who can attain He expostulated without avail, scratched the speed of 200 miles an hour or graduhis head, thought a long while, and finally ally slow up until it stops. The remarkwent away. He came back the next able speed that this machine is capable of will make it possible and convenient for a "I've got her," he exclaimed, and person to have his place of business 100 or reaching in his pocket he drew out a great 200 miles from his place of residence if he so desires, and he can go back and forth daily with more convenience than at Hank slipped the ring over the girl's present with the facilities afforded by the railroads if he lived but 15 miles away. Passengers desiring to go to San Francisco "Now, Sal, are ye satisfied that weuns from New York can take a berth on the aerial navigator in the evening at the latter city and wake up the next morning the ring around on her finger; "but say, at their destination. Any one desiring to go to London or any other European city can take passage on the air ship at night and be in the desired city the next day. That aerial navigation is the coming mode of travel can not be doubted. It "Ef you must know, I cut it outen dad's will advance man to a higher element of Fine Rolled Plate Chains, etc thought, disseminate enlightenment throughout the world, open the way to as their ireckled sunburned cheeks new ideas, bring mankind into closer relationship, and be a long stride in the

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by mothers for their children while teething. If disturbed at night and broken of rest by a sick child crying with pain of Cutting Teeth send at once and get a bottle The writer of a "Winter Journey to of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Japan," in Harper's Magazine for Novem- | Children Teething. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it mothers, there is no mstake about it. I cures Diarrhœa, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind, Colic, softens the Gums and reduces Inflammation. Is pleasant to the taste. The prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses when such a journey would have been a in the United States, and is sold at 25 cents per bottle by all druggists throughout the theless what we now think rapid travel- world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Wins-LOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.

> A school girl in Germany, only eleven years old, is six feet tall. She probably attends the high school.

Bermuda Bottled. "You must go to Bermuda. If you do not I will not be responsible for the consequences." "But, doctor, I can afford neither the time nor the money." "Well, if that is impossible, try OF PURE NORWEGIAN COD LIVER OIL.

i sometimes call it Bermuda Bot ded, and many cases of CONSUMPTION,

Bronchitis, Cough or Severe Cold I have CURED with it; and the advantage is that the most sensitive stomach can take it. Another thing which commends it is the stimulating properties of the Hypophosphites which it contains.
You will find it for sale at your Druggist's, in Salmon wrapper. Be sure you get the genuine."

SCOTT & BOWNE, Belleville.

E. W. GILLETT, TORONTO, ONT. CHICAGO, ILL.

Man'f'r of the CELEBRATED ROYAL YEAST CARES.

M'MURRAY & CO.

Employs no Agents, but gives the Large Commission to the Buyer, and by so doing, can sell you an

-0 RGAN-

AT VERY LOW PRICES, and on as easy terms as any other company on the

INSTALMENT PLAN.

Call and See our ORGANS and PRICES.

SEWING MACHINE $18, AND THE HIGHEST PRICE MACHINE MADE IN CANADA FOR $27.50. AFTER USING THEM SIX MONTHS, AND NOT SATISFACTORY, MONEY REFUNDED.

CALL AND SEE THEM.

WE ALSO SELL THE "White" Sewing Machine, which took the First Prize Gold Medal over all others at the Paris Exhibition.

We have much pleasure in stating that we have bought in the United States,—before the rise in Wall Papers, 1700 Rolls, and will be in a position very shortly to show the BEST ASSORTMENT of WALL PAPERS to be had anywhere, in es, Engrain and fine Gold Papers, with Borders to match; and we will offer them at prices never known in this City

BROWNS FROM 5 CENTS UPWARDS; WHITES FROM 8 CENTS UPWARDS; GILTS FROM 20 CENTS UPWARDS. Call and see the Stock and Prices.

To arrive this week from Montreal, 8000 Rolls (cheap) Wholesale or Retail.

McMURRAY & CO

R. BLACKMER,

PRACTICAL

WATCHMAKER and JEWELER, HAS IN STOCK A FULL LINE OF

in Solid Gold, Gold Filled and Silver Cases.

and everything usually found in a first-class jewelry store. A FULL LINE OF CLOCKS Of the best makes.

SILVERWARE In CASTORS, SPOONS, etc., of the Finest SUMMER CLOTHS ENGRAVING On COFFIN PLATES, SPOONS, etc., neatly executed. The Cheapest Place in the City for Fine Work and Fine Jewelry. One Door Below the People's Bank

Turnip Sower. FOR SALE CHEAP. 1 - TURNIP - SOWER,

R. CHESTNUT & SONS. Carriage Bolts. JUST RECEIVED

For sale by R. CHESTNUT & SONS. S. L. MORRISON,

FLOUR, MEAL TEA,

COFFEE,

SUGAR, MOLASSES

TOBACCO,

CANNED GOODS

---AND--General Groceries.

QUEEN STREET.

OPP. CITY HALL. FREDERICTON, N. B.

NOTICE. Fresh GARDEN, AND A

ALWAYS IN STOCK: HAY, OATS, STRAW, BRAN, SHORTS, MIDDLINGS, CRACKED CORN. COTTON SEED AND OIL CAKE MEAL, LIME, LAND AND CALCINED PLASTER. Hard and Soft House Coal.

SEED BUCKWHEAT, SEED WHEAT,

ALSO, CLOVER AND TIMOTHY SEED,

all CHEAPER than the CHEAPEST. WALTHAM WATCHES Office and Warehouse: Campbell St., above City Hall JAS. TIBBITS.

Tailoring

JUST OPENED,

A Choice Line of

In All the Latest Patterns, NOTE -I do not claim the Largest Stock in the City, but I do claim to Sell First-class Goods at a Small Profit. A visit to my Store, when you are in the City, will convince you of this fact.

JOSEPH WALKER, SEED DATS, Practical Tailor, NEXT DOOR ABOVE W. H. VANWART'S

QUEEN STREET, FREDERICTON. 5 CASES containing 10,500 Carriage Bolt and 9,000 Tire Bolts. THE FIVERPOOL AND LONDON AND INSURANCE COMPANY.

GROCERY STORE,

Assets, 1st January, 1889, - $39,722,809.59 Assets in Canada, " - 870,525.67 Fire Insurance of Every Description at

LOWEST CURRENT RATES.

WM. WILSON,

WILLIAM ROSSBOROUGH MASON, Plasterer. - and - Bricklayer.

SHORE ST., NEAR GAS WORKS, FREDERICTON, N. B. JOBBING a specialty. Workmanship first-class.

Per S. S. Nova Scotian.

R. CHESTNUT & SONS.

Prices satisfactor

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received his usual large supply of Garden, Field and Flower Seeds for the Season of 1899, imported direct from the now celebrated house STEELE BROS., Toronto, whose seeds gave such universal At the meeting of the Farmers' Convention held this City during the past winter, the President in e course of his remarks said that the Seeds grown of the Steele Brothers Co. of Toronto, were better tapted to the soil and climate of New Brunswick

ALL THE LEADING VARIETIES OF

Darsnips, Onions,

Yellow Dutch Onion Sets.

Special discount given to Agricultural Societies and Country Dealers REMEMBER THE OLD STAND. GEO. H. DAVIS, 500 Bushel TIMOTHY SEED.

ALWAYS IN STOCK

Christie, Brown & Co.'s BISCUIT SOCIAL TEA BISCUIT, SODA EISCUIT in 2 and 3 lb. Roxer

TO ARRIVE,

I Car Bran and Middings.

Agent. 310 QUEEN STREET

RELIABLE PUSHING MEN to sell ch

Coal Tar.

1 1-2 TONS assorted sizes of CABLE CHAIN, from 3-16 to 7-16 of an TAR. Just received by R. CHESTNUT & SONS.

Deans, Peas, Beets, Carrots, and all small Seeds, either in bulk or in packages— Wholesale and Retail. My Onion Seed for this year is the finest I ever

Druggist and Seedsman

CORNER QUEEN AND REGENT STS.

G. T. WELPLEY.

JUST RECEIVED.

I Ton CLOVER FEED.

FEEDING OATS.

MACCAROONS. &c.

GRAHAM WAFERS

3 Cars Ontario Seed Oats.

G. T. WHELPLEY, FREDERICTON.

usery Stock. Complete assortment. Splendid portunity offered for Spring work. My Saleseen have good success, many selling from $100 $200 rer week. Send for Proof and Testimonis. A good pushing man wanted here at once, therefore the proof of the set of the party of the set of the proof. The proof of the proof of the proof.

FROM NEW YORK.