the feathinably dressed lady whom he let coming out of a dry goods store. He ad heard of shoplitters who carried to the most costly goods in a sack disposed about the person. He was ambitious of detirition and here was a chance for the corded fame. The lady was evidently carring beavy load. She must be a absultant There must be no doubt of it—he would arrest her.

You are my prisoner, he said, symphis hands on her shoulder.

What do you mean? demanded the insulted Bady.

What so that you've got on your beartolen goods?

Heaven 11 nover was so insulted. No, sir, it s not stolen goods?

The mean no offence, madam, but my duty compels me to examine it.

Sir, william—that's my—my Green bond?

In the surface of the corded that have two manded that is not stolen goods?

Heaven 12 nover was so insulted. No, sir, it s not stolen goods.

Sir, william—that's my—my Green bond?

In the surface of the corded that have two manded that is supposed to be insance.

Under the above caption, the Owen Sound Advertiser, not without reason, pokes a good deal of fun at Mr. Carnegie, M. P.
P., for introducing a bill in reference to the auditing of accounts at the Quartes Sessions. The Advertiser thinks Ontario had better dispense with her representtive institutions, onless men, of more breadth of mind can be found as legislator.
The bill is as follows:

The bill is as follows:

"No accounts shall be passed or smitted at any court of Quarter Bessions, in any County in Ontario, except by the Judge of the County Court, and four ungainstate, who shall be appointed annually for that purpose by the County Council, and it may be lawful for any County or union of counties at their finite meeting inseals year, not more sharm the best man his fallings, and founty Council, and it may be lawful for any County Council to the time bulls, on such County Council and it may be lawful for any County Council to pay such magistrates for the time bulls, or such County Council to pay such magistrates for the time bulls, or such County Council to pay such magistrates for the time bulls, or such County Council and it may be lawful for any County Council to pay such magistrates of the more state in their own up the impractibility, shall we not say the magnetic for the time bulls, or law the magnetic form of the more state in their own up the impractibility, shall we not say the magnetic form of the more state in their own to the impractibility, shall we not say the magnetic form of the more state in their own to the impractibility, shall we not say the magnetic form of the more state in their own to the impractibility, shall we not say the magnetic form of the more state in their own to the impractibility, shall we not say the magnetic form of the more state in their own or the more state in their own of the more state in the count of the more state in their own of the more state in the state of the more state in their own of th

What a place for sportanean some portions of California must be! A gentleman writing from San Bueneventure says that rabbite, harea qualta, ground equirrela, and other birds and animals are to be counted there by thousands, and thus he shot a buggy-load of them in an hour of two without leaving his seat. If killed, on one occasion, two rabbits at one shot, and three at another. In the last instance he only saw one, but when he went to pick it up from the vide of a bush is found two others kicking their death threes along side ! Indeed, game is so plentiful there that farmers are obliged to kill it of vith poison in order to save thair arops from
