Fun and Fancy.

Jones thinks a man fortunate who has his will contested after death only. He ea,'s his will has been contested ever since he married Mrs. Jones.

"What are you going to do when you grow up, if you don't know how to cipher?" asked a teacher of a rather slow boy. "I am going to be school teacher, and make the boys do all the cyphering," was the reply.

It is related that President Segnier was always hard upon the lawyers When. the docket was being called one day it was found that both advocates in a certain case were sheent. "Go on with it, then," cried the president, in high spirits; "go on with it; we shall have a chance of getting at the truth."

A dry goods clerk, with a very affected gait, had to golf to a distant part of the store for some goods for a party of feminine customers. "Walk this way, ladies," he called, as he swung himself off "But we can't walk that way," cried a pert miss; "we never learned that style, you know." The clerk is now drilling on a more common method.

An elderly resident, of Newtown, was approached by an agent for a cyclopedia. "I guess I won't get one," said the elderly citizen, and frankly added, "I know I never could learn to ride one of the peaky things."

It was at the house of the bride's parents after the wedding. On a table were exposed the costly presents. Two gentlemen were examining them. Said one of them suddenly: "These, you say, are the bride's presents, but what does the groom get?" "Oh," replied the other, "he gets the woman." First gentleman: "Is that all? Poor fellow!"

READY WIT.—The jester attached to the court of Peter the Great of Russia was remarkable for his ingenuity in ex-tricating himself and others from trou-ble. A cousin of his, on one occasion, had fallen under the Czar's displeasure, had fallen under the Czar's displeasure, and was about to be executed. The jester presented himself at court to petition for a reprieva. On seeing him enter the chamber of state, and divining his arrand, the monarch shouted to him—"It's of no use coming here; I swear that I will not grant what you are going to his knees, and exclaimed—"I beseech your Imperial Highness to put that scamp of a coustn of mine to death."

Peter, thus chight in his own trap, had no choice but to laugh, and sent a pardon to the offender.

What thin of a hian you long interpression by to be.

There are two ways of being happy.

We may either diminish our wants or augment our means. The result is the ame, and it is for each man to decide for himself and to do that which may happen to be the easier.

A Reliable Witness.

Mr. White, late proprietor of the Mansion Salcon, King Street, Toronto, writes as follows about Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters: "I have used Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters for nearly two years, and I believe it to be the best medicine in the world. I would not be without it for anything. I have induced scores of people to try it, and when taken according to directions, I have never known it to fail. I call the Bitters, "The Doctor." It has certainly been my family doctor ever since I first been my family doctor ever since I first used it, and will continue to be as long used it, and will continue to be as long as it acts the same as hitherto. I strongly advise all my friends and the public generally, who suffer from any affections of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver or Blood, such as Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Headache, Dizziness, Costiveness, Impurities of the Blood, Rheumatism Newalgia etc. to have a bottle matism, Neuralgia, etc., to buy a bottle of 'The Doctor,' and I am certain that Canadian waters have been admitted to (5) the United States free of duty. The Canadian dealers insist that frogs are fish, and therefore exempt; the American Customs officers object to this clasification, and hold that fish were never known to have feet, while the subject of dispute has four. To this the Canadians reply, that if frogs are not fish they are certainly not animals nor birds, and cannot be subjected to classification for duty. The matter has been referred to the 50 cts. a bottle.
